Miscellaneous.

JUST TO OBLIGE FATHER.—Justice Alley had hardly been opened to legal business yesterday morning when a sleigh containing seven or eight persons from beyond the city limits drove up to the door of a popular justice and piled out with an air of business. His honor was poking up the fire when an old man beckoned him into a corner and whispered:—

'Got a job of splicing here for ye! My darter Sarah here is going to hitch to that chap there with the blue comforter and then we're going out to have some oysters.'

'All right—all right,' was the reply, and in two minutes the officer was all ready.

The man with the blue comforter peeled his overcoat, laid aside his hat and extended his hand to Sarah.

'I won't do it—I'll die first!' she said, as she shrank away.

'She's a leetle timid—a leetle timid,' explained the old man, while the mother rebukingly observed:—

'Sarah, don't you make a fool of yourself here. William will make you a good husband.'

'And don't you forgit it' added William. 'Come, Sarah.'

'I won't, unless we can go to New York on a bridle tour,' she snapped.

'You'd look nice bridle towering around New York with no better duds than you've got!' said the mother. 'Now, Sarah, you stand up and git married!'

'Be keerful, mother—don't make 'er mad!' warned the old man. 'Now, Sarah, if ye back out everybody will laff at us.'

'I don't keer. I want to travel.'

'You shall,' answered William.

'Where?'

'We shall go up to the House of Correction.'

'Taint far nuff.'

The ole man beckoned William and Sarah aside and began:

'Now, Sarah, William jist dotes on you.'

'But I want a bridle tower.'

'Yes, but ye can't have one. The railroads are all snowed under, and towers have gone out of fashion anyhow.'

'Then I want a diamond ring.'

'Now don't say that, Sarah, fur I went to every store on Saturday and they was all out of diamond rings.'

'Then I want a set of mink furs.'

'Mink furs! William, I knew you'd buy 'em for her in a second, but they've gone out of style and can't be had. Sarah, I'm yer father, ain't I?'

'Yes, dad.'

'And I've allus been tender to ye?'

'Yes.'

'Then be tender of me. I want to see ye married to William. You can't have a tower, nor a diamond ring, nor a set of furs, but I'll buy ye a pair of new gaiters. William will pay for the oysters, and I'll see that mother divides up the dishes and bedding with ye. Sarah, do you want to see my gray hairs bowed down?'

'N-o-o.'

'Then don't flunk out.'

'Will they be $2 gaiters?' she asked.

'Yes.'

'And all the oysters we can eat?'

'Yes, all you kin stuff.'

'And a tower next fall, if wheat does well?'

'Yes.'

'Then I guess I will. Come, Bill, I don't keer two cents for you, but I want to oblige father.'—Detroit Free Press.

SUBSTITUTES!

☞ The public are cautioned against a custom which is growing quite common of late among a certain class of medicine dealers, and which is this: When asked for a bottle of Pain-Killer, they suddenly discover that they are "sold out," "but have another article in it as good, if not better," which they will supply at the same price. The object of this deception is transparent. These substitutes are made up to sell on the great reputation of the Pain-Killer; and being compounded of the vilest and cheapest drugs, are bought by the dealer at about half what he pays for the genuine Pain-Killer, which enables him therefore to realize a few cents more profit per bottle upon the imitation article than he can on the genuine.

For CHOLERA MORBUS, CRAMPS, AND ALL SUMMER OR BOWEL COMPLAINTS

IT CURES ALMOST INSTANTLY.

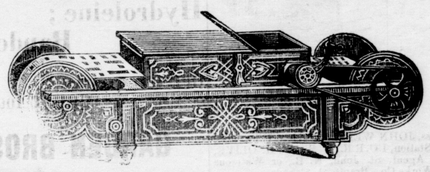
Mechanical Orguinette!



AN AUTOMATIC REED ORGAN!

"THE ORGUINETTE may now be called a celebrated instrument. In tone it is akin to the Cabinet Organ, but the organ must be manipulated by an artist in order to produce music; the ORGUINETTE is on the other hand entirely mechanical in its action, and at trifling expense it can be made to furnish an unlimited supply of all kinds of music."—Toronto Globe.

"THE ORGUINETTE is indeed a musical wonder. It is a minature reed organ, with as strong and melodious a tone as the Cabinet Size. It surpasses the Cabinet Organ, for the reason that the ignoramus in music can play it as well as the most accomplished professor. THE ORGUINETTE is strong and accurate in its mechanism, and consequently not liable to get out of order."—Montreal Gazette.

"THE ORGUINETTE is the most perfect automatic musical instrument yet invented; its repertoire is unlimited, the tone is remarkably good."—Montreal Star.

NEW FACTS IN THE THEORY OF LIFE.

A CHEMICAL TRIUMPH.

WHAT IT IS.

We live in an age of progress and discovery. Theories have become Facts. One discovery only culminates in another. The man of Science gives us the result of his researches for our general good. Scientists who were looked upon as mad by our fathers, are now recognized as benefactors to the human race. Even in our own day, among justly celebrated physicians, there is evinced a want of appreciation in their practice of the great part which the NERVOUS or MAGNETIC FORCE plays in the daily nutrition and growth of our bodies, but more especially in the influence of Nervous Force over disease and its cure. It is not so in France.

In the Great Medical Schools in France from which this Magnetic Odorem natural,

Every Medical Science is cultivated in investigating new facts and drawing useful deductions therefrom. One result is

THE DISCOVERY OF THIS PREPARATION.

Throughout France it has a standard reputation. It is only now on this side of the Atlantic. From a knowledge of its virtues we claim for it a large share of the confidence of the public. We do it from knowing that what it promises to do, it does effectually. It knows no failure,—is the most speedy, safe and certain in its cures. The smallest particle of it is worth more than a dozen bottles of oils, which contain no Magnetism,—for, without Magnetism Death, for MAGNETISM is LIFE. It is composed of powerful vegetable oils, all combining MAGNETIC FORCE. It contains more than all the virtues of the best preparations which have ever been invented, because it possesses the invaluable addition of the Magnetic Power, which is wonderfully developed by its use. There never existed a remedy so striking and immediate in its effects, so simple and safe to use. Were a universal remedy possible, THE FRENCH MAGNETIC OIL is the only one that could lay claim to the name.

☞ Next month we shall tell you more about it.
