VEGETINE CURED HIS DAUGH-

CALLIERSVILL, Chilton Co., Ala., May 15, 1881.

Dear Sir—My daughter has been afflicted with nasal catarrh, affection of bladder and kidneys and is of scrofulous diathesis, and, after having exhausted my skill and the most eminent physicians of Selma, I at last resorted to the use of your VEGETINE (without confidence), and, to my great surprise, my daughter has been restored to health. I write this as a simple act of

VEGETINE. Remarkable Cure of Scrofulous

MR. H. R. Stevens:

Dear Sir—I can testify to the good effect of your medicine, My little boy had a Scrofula something more modern, and a slender roll of French bread was proposed as large as of a dollar, and it went down his face from one ear to the other, under his peck, and was one tumultuously upstairs, like the wild sprite the board, while half a dozen pates de Breeches;" "High-heeled Shoes for Ottawa firmer, and buyers are looking for it yourself, hire it done; it will pay. TRUTH STRANGER THAN FICTION .-Twenty-eight years ago a little girl, Annie

Haliday, six years of age, whose parents reside at Chutes Cove, Nova Scotia, was missing, and 300 men turned out to search for her, but she was not found, to the great grief of her parents; and after all hope had died out her funeral sermon was preached.

A few days ago word was sent to the family that Annie was alive, and living with some Indian families within a few miles of her former home. Two of her brothers procedeed to the place and found the long lost eister, the wife of a young I lian, and the mother of two children. She went with them to the old homestead; and the parent's feelings may be imagined. She recognises the old home and tells how she was stolen by the Indians. She refuses to leave her
