A "Retired" Liquor Dealer, in Fredericton, who affirms that he still sells, has a communication a St. John paper. It is but right that such a witness should be heard as to the operation of the law. He affords matter for reflection wherever the law is in force. Against the principle of the law and what should be its legitimate results, this testimony is not effective, while it suggests the importance of extreme measures. He says There is one fact that blinds the eye of people who have eyes usually keen enough to keep their mind well informed. That is | Plant of the and of the Art. The unthat there is not so much visible drunkenness pared to receive pupils for Instruction on the in every department, to which additions are being in Fredericton now as formerly. This I admit. We don't see confirmed drunkards howling around the streets or lying in the gutters. Why? Because the officials could dealers do not sell to make people drunk.

These worthless characters are probably benefitted by the liquor law, but just here is

Main Street where the reform stops. Young men respectably brought up might well be deterred from drinking by the sight of such examples, but now upon the principle of forbidden fruit it is natural that they should cherish a habit in secret, which from law and discretion they are unable to practice openly. Stolen fruit tastes sweetest. After all, since temperance people have to consider this "reform" from the standpoint of dollars and cents, what does it practically matter if two or three aged and shiftless inebriates are reformed for the On THURSDAY Evening next, few years that may yet remain to them this side of the grave, compared with the ruinous effect a contraband trade always works upon the morals of dealers and customers. It is right and proper that they should raform, but when the law which protects them attracts others to ruin the principle of the greatest good to the greatest number should prevail, and the minority be sacrificed. HELP YOUR OWN TOWN .- Says an exchange :- Either ran your town up with a vim, or just get up and leave it. One or two things should be done; push things; find means or a way to put some go-ahead into the business; run the town for all their is in it; get steam up and keep it up, or e'se quit the whole thing. Vamoose the ranche, slide out and let nature have her own way. Do you want trade? bid for it. Do you want business men to come to town? Encourage those who do come. Do you want to have a prosperous town where people can come disposed to make it their home? Then do away with, bury from sight, all local difference, all jealousy, all spite, work no more for a few individuals, but all work together for a common prosperbut all work together for a common prosperbut all work together for a common prosperbut all work together for a common prosperity, and for a mutual benefit. Wake up, rub your eyes, roll up your sleeves, and go to work. Don't go to work with fear and trembling, but take it for granted that work will tell. Leave results to themselves, borrow no trouble, but all unite and make the biggest kind of a try.

A CONSIDERATE DRAM-DRINKER.-A clerical friend, formerly settled in the North of Scotland, had occasion to speak to the ferryman over a somewnat dangerous bit or sea of his habits, in respect of a too free use of whiskey. In the course of their talk he said, 'but, Donald, do you not think now that you would be better without it altothat you would be better without it altoferryman over a somewhat dangerous bit of that you would be better without it altogether, especially as you have to be out so gether, especially as you have to be out so often when the sea is rough?' 'Well, I often when the sea is rough?' 'Well, I dinna ken; but, Mr. M—, will you no' be sometimes takin' a dram yoursel'?' 'Oh, what I will do. If you will promise to give give it up altogether, I will.' 'Aye, well,' replied Donald, 'it is very kind of you, I'm sure, but if I would give you a promise, I am faceand that I wadna be able to keep it; and sould see, it might be a long while after. ee, it micht be a long while afore I wad be seein' you, and I would be so sorry to think that you wadna be gettin' your dram, while I was takin' mine.

The attention of wholesale buyers are especially directed to the above, as I am confident they cannot be surpassed for quality and cheapness in Pain cannot exist where the French MAGNETIC OIL is used. Third:—It is a great Nervine Tonic. Possessing, as it does, the wondrous and infallible virtues of MAGNETIC INFLUENCE, it will therefore be found of surpassing value in all Nervous Diseases, such as Tic-Doloureux, Neuralgia, and all mose complaints which arise from Diseases, such as a complaint which arise from and all those complaints which arise from derangement of the Nervous System. By its constant supply of Magnetism, it subdues those complaints, equalizes the Magnetic Current, balances the circulation, removes all spasmould affections, and allays all Nervous Irritation.

It is without a rival as a remedy, as it immediately supplies Magnetic Force to every part of the feeble and prostrate body. It is used with the most astonishing success from the start. As soon as its use is begun all aches and pains must disappear as rapidly as water quenches flame.

It is so penetrating that you get the benefit of every drop as soon as applied, so great is its power. It does not stay on the surface like a grease spot, but is absorbed by the powers and carried at once to the seat of disease, expelling the pain instabily.

It is the Greatest Pain Expeller It is clean, safe and delicious to use, and if you use it will give perfect relief in all cases.

It is the cheapest and most valuable remedy ever given to the world. Its worth is inestimable, and its price almost nothing. Use it and it will prove itself worth one hundred times its
