Miscellaneous.

A LATELY DISCOVERED PARABLE—WITH A SUPPLEMENT.—Then shall the kingdom of Satan be likened to a grain of tobacco seed: which though exceedingly small, being cast into the ground grew, and became a great plant, and spread its leaves rank and broad, so that huge and vile worms found a habitation thereon. And it came to pass in the course of time that the sons of men looked upon it, and thought it beautiful to look upon; and much to be desired to make lads look big and manly. So they put forth their hands and did chew thereof. And some it made sick, and others to vomit most filthily. And it further came to pass that those who chewed it became weak and unmanly, and said, "We are enslaved, and can't cease from chewing it." And the mouths of all that were enslaved became foul, and they were seized with a violent spitting, and they did spit even in ladies' parlors, and in the house of the Lord of Hosts. And the saints of the Most High were greatly plagued thereby. And in the course of time it came also to pass that others snuffed it, and they were taken suddenly with fits, and they did sneeze with a great and mighty sneeze, insomuch that their eyes were filled with tears, and they did look exceedingly silly. And yet others cunningly wrought the leaves thereof into rolls, and did set fire to the one end thereof, and did suck most vehemently at the other end thereof, and did look very grave and calf-like. . . .

And the cultivation thereof became a great and mighty business in the earth, and the merchant men waxed rich by the commerce thereof. And it came to pass that the saints of the Most High defiled themselves therewith; even the poor who could not buy shoes, nor bread, nor books for their little ones, spent their money for it. And the Lord was greatly displeased therewith, and said, "Wherefore this waste and folly, do these little ones lack bread and shoes and books? Turn now your fields into corn and wheat, and put this evil thing far from you, and be separate, and defile not yourselves any more, and I will bless you and cause my face to shine upon you."

But with one accord they all exclaimed: "We cannot cease from chewing, snuffing and puffing—we are slaves!"

SUPPLEMENT.

And it came to pass that the women of the land began to use it; and they broke sticks and made little mops thereof, and with tobacco powder they did besmear their mouths. Then was to be seen a sight deplorable. Some it made hypocrites, for they did use it in secret. Some it made bold by its energy, to use it in defiance of decency, and the wishes of their friends; and they did slobber and spit, and their mouths did show the sign thereof, with the unsightly dark stain around them; and they did run their tongues round their lips to clean them, and then they did spit again, and their handkerchiefs were defiled, and oftentimes their clothes. Many grew sallow and husky, and tremulous, and said they were nervous, and had more trials than anybody, and died before their time, and bequeathed impaired constitutions to their children, and the world was cursed by this fashion exceedingly, and a sigh was raised by the thoughtful of the land; for the hurt of the daughters of the people was great.

And it was said, "What shall be done? Alas! what shall be done?"—Methodist Protestant.

MANHOOD

How Lost, How Restored!

We have recently published a new edition of Dr. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc., resulting from excesses.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents, or two postage stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' successful practise, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicines or the use of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

SUBSTITUTES!

☞ The public are cautioned against a custom which is growing quite common of late among a certain class of medicine dealers, and which is this: When asked for a bottle of Pain-Killer, they suddenly discover that they are "sold out," "but have another article in it as good, if not better," which they will supply at the same price. The object of this deception is transparent. These substitutes are made up to sell on the great reputation of the Pain-Killer; and being compounded of the vilest and cheapest drugs, are bought by the dealer at about half what he pays for the genuine Pain-Killer, which enables him therefore to realize a few cents more profit per bottle upon the imitation article than he can on the genuine.

FOR CHOLERA MORBUS, CRAMPS, AND ALL SUMMER OR BOWEL COMPLAINTS PERRY DAVIS' PAIN-KILLER IS UNEQUALLED.

IT CURES ALMOST INSTANTLY.

The PAIN KILLER is put up in 2 oz. and 5 oz. bottles retailing at 25 and 50 cents respectively—large bottles are therefore cheapest.
