Temperance Column.

This column, by special arrangement is under the control of the Executive of the Grand Lodge, I.O.G.T., of New Brunswick. All notices in it may be regarded by the Lodges and Deputies as official.

OFFICIAL NOTICE.—All communications relating to Constitutional questions, must be addressed to James Watts, G. W. C. T., Woodstock, N. B.

All Remittances, Orders and Returns, must be addressed to A. W. D. Knapp, G. W. S., Sackville, Westmorland Co., N. B.

A. W. D. KNAPP,
G. W. Secretary.

If the question is asked, as regards this and other localities, how are temperance matters progressing? the reply cannot be very positive or assuring. Here and elsewhere the close organizations may be holding their own; may be doing good work in a quiet way; may be distilling a gracious influence for the benefit of society, but so far as public life and zeal and enthusiasm goes, we see and hear little of it. And without the outward and visible elements of the reform it must be assumed that progress is not being made, and if there is not progress is not the conclusion sensible that there is retrogression? In this matter, unless there be a constant aggregation of movement in advance, we fear it may be taken for granted that the evil influences that are always alert, always active, are recovering lost territory. We know appreciate and admire the sterling resoluteness and inviolate consistency of hundreds of temperance friends and advocates in our communities, but at the same time we fear, and not without reason, there are many others looked upon as reliable who are spasmodic in their consistency as they are in their efforts for the cause. We fear there are too many who put off their temperance principles with their out-door garments and scarcely carry an integrity to principles in their private lives.

At all events there is ample room and necessity for constant consecration of all professed temperance friends in the work. We notice that of late little is said about the bringing the law into force in St. John. Perhaps this is not an indication that the attempt has been decided against there, but when there is active work going on in the direction intimated, we might expect to see and hear more of the agitation than we do. We did entertain strong hopes that the past winter would have seen a wider adoption of the law, and a more complete indication of its effectiveness. The winter is the time for the agitation of such measures; the time for influencing public opinion, and we can scarcely hope for success in summer, when success depends upon a publicly displayed popular sympathy, when the opportunities of winter have not been taken advantage of.

We write thus not to display any distrust as regards past operations or future success, nor with any desire to seem merely critical, but rather to point out certain facts for the consideration of true temperance workers, that grasping the situation of affairs they may be induced to seek for and apply the remedy, and bestir themselves so that not only no vantage ground may be lost, but that fresh efforts may be made to insure speady success in the future.

An exchange records the following novel departure from the ordinary methods of fighting the alchoholic traffic:—

In the Town of Berwick, Pennsylvania, there is a great car manufacturing company which employs a great number of hands, and as usual there are a number of groggeries ies to adsorb the wages of the workmen and unfit them for work. The intelligent president of the company surveys the situation and counts the cost. As men will sell liquor, and the law will license them, the short cut is to buy them off, and he compounds by paying them six thousand dollars as their assumed profits on condition of their discontinuing the sale. This is a method which could not be worked as a rule. Intending rumsellers would soon learn to flock to Berwick to get capital on which to start elsewhere. But it stands as a startling protest against the mischief done by this traffic, and is indeed a reductio ad absurdum. Judged of by itself all manufacturers and their foremen will readily perceive the profitableness of this transaction. If a workman takes a full "drunk" at home for two or three days and comes back to his work sober, so far as concerns the shop, there is only so many days' wages less to pay, but when the neighborhood is filled with liquor sellers, the workmen going in and out are enticed by appetite or good fellowship into "nipping" all day long. They come in with an uncertain load of alcohol. There is no gauge to uncertain its exact weight or probable effect, and consequently there is a continued danger of damage, derangement and mischief of all sorts, to the cost of the employer and fellow-workmen.

LOWELL, Mass., with its large manufacturing industries, has determined that the sale and use of intoxicants is hurtful to its business and the morals of its people, and and therefore has concluded to grant no liquor licences this year. We believe there is a local option liquor law in force in Massachusetts.

Golden Rule Lodge, No 44, Fredericton, has added to its membership during the past quarter, thirty. It has during the same time fitted up its Lodge room in grand style, and claims now to have one of the finest halls in the celestial city.

Next month the new prohibitory liquor law of Kansas goes into force. The Rev. Dr. Beatty, of Lawrence, it is reported, has been warned that if he persusts in using fermented wine in administering the Eucharist, as he has declared from the pulpit he is going to do, his arrest will immediately follow. If this threat is carried into effect we shall have the queer sight of a Christian clergyman on trial in a secular court for obeying the law of his church in a point in which this law is based, as he believes, upon a plain and imperative precept of Jesus.—New York Sun.

The temperance movement has a momentum such as it never had before, and the forces gathering to its aid are more varied and persistent than ever. The evil it confronts and endeavours to overthrow is immense, powerful, truculent, and determined, but time and God are always with the right.—Temperance Gazette.

The question of temperance is one of intimate interest to the working people. There is no doubt that the money expended for intoxicating liquors, if invested in any legitimate, honest business, would furnish employment for every idle person in the nation.

THE DAY BEFORE THE CZAR'S DEATH.—It is reported from St. Petersburg that, on the day previous to the late Czar's assassination, the Grand Duke Constantine and his wife were dining with His Majesty. In the course of conversation during dinner the Emperor casually observed that, in all probability, he should not, as had been his wont, attend the Sunday morning parade, as he was suffering from a slight cold. Upon this the Grand Duchess rejoined that His Majesty's absence would prove a serious disappointment to her son, Dimitri, who had just purchased a handsome charger, which he had proposed to himself to show off to his uncle in the Riding School after parade during the following forenoon. "That being the case," said the Emperor, good-naturedly, "I dare say I shall manage to attend the parade as usual," and I did so. The Grand Duchess, when apprised of his death, was for a time completely over-whelmed by the conviction that, but for her persuasions, her brother-in-law would not have left his palace on that fatal Sunday morning.

Woodstock, April 15, 1881

Is a compound of the virtues of sarsaparilla, stillingia, mandrake, yellow dock, with the iodide of potash and iron, all powerful blood-making, blood-cleansing, and life-sustaining elements. It is the purest, safest, and most effectual alterative medicine known or available to the public. The sciences of medicine and chemistry have never produced so valuable a remedy, nor one so potent to cure all diseases resulting from impure blood. It cures Scrofula and all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas, Rose, or St. Anthony's Fire, Pimples and Face-grubs, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter, Humors, Salt Rheum, Scald-head, Ring-worm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Mercurial Disease, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Jaundice, Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility.

By its searching and cleansing qualities it purges out the foul corruptions which contaminate the blood and cause derangement and decay. It stimulates and enlivens the vital functions, promotes energy and strength, restores and preserves health, and infuses new life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any disease which arises from impurity of the blood need despair who will give AYER'S SARSAPARILLA a fair trial.

It is folly to experiment with the numerous low-priced mixtures, of cheap materials, and without medicinal virtues, offered as blood-purifiers, while disease becomes more firmly seated. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA is a medicine of such concentrated curative power, that it is by far the best, cheapest, and most reliable blood-purifier known. Physicians know its composition, and prescribe it. It has been widely used for forty years, and has won the unqualified confidence of millions whom it has benefited.

Having now published my Catalogue of Seeds in detail, I would like you, when in Town, to call and examine my stock, whether you buy or not. You will find decidedly a fine Stock, at very low prices, to suit the times. Wholesale buyers are particularly requested to give me a call, as I can sell them Seeds much lower than they have ever been in the habit of buying.
