SUBSTITUTES!

The public are cautioned against a custom which is growing quite common of late among a certain class of medicine dealers, and which is this : When asked for a bottle of Pain-Killer, they swidenly discover that they are "sold out." "but have another article in t as ped. if not better." which they will supply at the same price. The object of this deception is transparent. These ubstitutes are made up to sell on the great reputation of the Pain-Killer: and being compounded of the vies and cheapest drugs, are bought by the dealer at ale alf what he pays for the genuine Pain-Killer, which enables him therefore to r alize a few cents more profit per bottle mon the imitation article than he can on the FOR CHOLERA MORBUS, CRAMPS

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use thin hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality
