INTELLIGENT readers will properly value MUSIC! MERIT! the amiable reference of the Press. We last week published a report of the speech of Sir Leonard Tilley and of Mr. Irvine, on the pork and salt duties; their remarks being chiefly devoted to the pork question, in which many of our readers are closely interested; it was our duty to give Mr. Irvine's speech, as well because he was the representative of the County.

The Press charges that we garbled the report; if so, is he not sayly guilty inasmuch as he fails now to colish Mr. Burpee's speech. Our purpose was to let our readers know the views from opposite stand points held on the pork duty question: our purposs was to let his constituents know what Mr. Irvine said. This purpose was served.

The Concert given in the Town Hall, on the afternoon of the Queen's birthday, will be repeated, by reques, in the same Hall, on Tuesday evening next.

Mr. McFarlan's Lottery was drawn on Thursday. No. 3,068 drew the farm. A full list the drawing will be given in next SENTINEL.

WASHINGTON LETTER. (From our own Correspondent) WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27, 1882. The Christiancy Divorce Suit. The Marital Our Own Orchestra! Troubles of an Ex-Senator. The old story of

January and May, The Dead Lock in Con The taking of testimony in the Christiancy divorce suit has been slowly progressing during the past week, and the counsel in the Geo, A. Christiancy, son of ex-Senator Christiancy, which was taken at Detroit for use in the divorce case, was opened here to-day He testified that his father treated Mrs. C kindly, but that she was petulous and disagreeable. He mentions some intimacies between Mr. Haight and Mrs. Christiancy, and

The testimony of ex-Senator Christiancy is also being taken, and he has put in evidence a letter written by himself to John W. Lugenbeel, Mrs. Christiancy's father, in August, 1878, in which he relates the story of his matricarry out his promise. Their trouble began on the morning of their wedding, when she heard of the return of James Lugenbeel, to whom she had once been engaged. She said she loved him and had perjured herself in springers and promised support of a very large number of the electors of this County, and to tulfil a pledge made four years ago to that effect.

As a farmer, in which capacity I approached you before. I feel the necessity of conserving the agricultural interests of the County, which I deem agricultural interests of the County, which I deem expressed admiration of Sam. Register, of Respectfully soliciting your support, Baltimore, and also a Mr. Wagner. Mr. Christiancy closes his letter by appealing to Mr. Lugenbeel to interest himself in his daughter's welfare, and to save her from ruining her reputation. For several weeks past Mrs. Christiancy has not attended upon city, when he engaged rooms for her and frequently met her day and night. Last Tuesday, handsomely and becomingly attired in a new and stylish costume, she was seen passing along the front of City Hall park escorted by a gentleman, also fashionably attired. They went over to the offices of Mesers. Cuppy and Ingersoll, when ex-Serat-or Christiancy was then testifying, and the or Christiancy was then testifying, and the two walking to the door of the room, she knocked and the door was opened and at a glance the Attorneys recognized her companion as Mr. Geo. W. Haight, but did not speak, excepting her counsel whom she expressed a wish to see. He passed into the hall-way, where a short consultation ensued, and then Mr. Haight and Mrs. Christiancy departed together, and the hearing was resumed. It was thought that the object of sumed. It was thought that the object of the visit was to provoke a scene. If so intended, the purpose failed, as neither the husband nor his counsel condescended to give the bold move more than a passing po-

The dead-lock in the House continues as it began. The result of yesterday's deliberations amounts to zero. Meeting at the usual hour, the House did nothing until 5 o'clock; meeting again at 8 it did nothing for two hours more. The audience was highly pleased and amused, if continued sp-plause and hearty laughter be sure indications. Miss Kate Clifford, as "Catty Stebbins." took the audience by storm; her dancing delighted, and her vivacity and wit were both excellent.

The singing and music were excellent.—Mon-treal Post, Sept. 13, 1881. It is impossible for a woman after a faithful course of treatment with Lydia E.
