Miscellaneous.

A DIABOLICAL INVENTION.—Take Connecticut man for inventions. One of them recently went without sleep for ten days, working on a "ventriloquil snorer." It was a machine by which you can make the sound of snoring proceed from any desired point. The thing wasn't calculated to benefit humanity. It was built to make money for the inventor. It did. Every drummer who went out of Boston for two weeks took one along. Ragbag bought one and starting for Albany, as night came, retired to the sleeping car. He kept still till about eleven o'clock, when everybody had got nicely to sleep, and then gauging the thing to throw the sound into the berth of a fat man, across the aisle, set the machine into motion. In about half a minute discontented grunts were heard in different berths. Then somebody swore, and finally somebody else shied a boot into the old man's berth. That called him out, and he indignantly denied snoring, and want ed to wallop the man who threw the boot While three or four were wrangling with him the snore was heard again coming from the berth of an elderly lady of single condition, down the aisle. Apologies 120 00 were made to the fat man, and as it was 70 00 known to be a lady snoring, it was at 40 00 first proposed to let her snore. But the it was no use. The passengers got up 40 00 and requested the porter to speak to her. 30 00 The porter, after much urging, did so.

He had the idea that he shouldn't enjoy the job, and he didn't. He got called a 15 00 bestowed upon the suffering passengers ended with violent hysterics. It was 12. 45 00 30 before the row was so settled that all 20 00 got into their berths again. They hoped 25 00 for peace and quiet. But, alas! just as all were sinking into slumber, it came again. Whoop! what a snore it was It brought people up so quick they bump-354 00 ed their heads against the tops of the berths, and profanity was numer-ous. That time it came from the berth of a red-headed plumber from Chicago. With a howl the excited passengers jump-

In the drawing of the above lottery, the blanks will be put in with the prizes, and will be drawn by two boys blindfolded. Tickets are now for sale at the store of John McFarlan, in the Town of Woodstock, and at several other stores in town; also along the line of the N. B. and N. B. & C. Railroads, at all stations.

With a howl the excited passengers jumped of him and yanked him out. They were about to hurl him from the window and even the mention of his trade did not scare them off. To save the man the drammer explained. He wished he hadn't. He was nearly torn to pieces by hadn't. He was nearly torn to pieces by the infuriated crowd, and the machine CALL AND SEE was smashed. Finally the conductor quelled the riot. The passengers retired with indignation at the drummer, and the next day every mother's son of 'embought one of the snorers to use in some other car .- Boston Post.

Ladies Plush and Straw Hats, in Fashionable and ought to know what they are talking

The story is told that some one once asked the late Dr. S. H. Cox, whose wit was irrepressible, how it happened that out of his large family half bad left the Presbyterian Church. "Oh!" ha replied, "it is a case of the virgins of Scripture-five were wise and five were Episcopalians."

CANDOUR.—"Tommy," said a mother to her seven-year old boy, "you must Smith's Drug Shop, not interrupt me when I am talking with ladies. You must wait till we stop, and then you can talk." " But you never stop." retorted the boy.

"YES, sir, said Mr. Gallagher, "it was funny enough to make a donkey laugh. I laughed till I cried." And then as he saw a smile go around the room, he grew red in the face and went away mad.
