H. R. BAIRD,

DRUGGIST, Main Street, Woodstock, N. B. A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN On the Loss of

MANHOOD. We have recently published a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to marriage, etc., resulting from Price, in sealed envelope, only 6 cents, or two postage stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' success-ful practise, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicines or use of the knife; pointing out a cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically. This Lecture should be in the hands every youth and every man in the land.

Miscellaneons.

There was a party of gentlemen the other day on a train on one of the roads coming into Nashville, and none of the party being strictly temperance men, one of the crowd suggested a drink. Another wanted to know where to get it. All seemed willing, but the day was warm, very warm. At last the fourth man in the party said he had a bottle of fine cocktail,' which he would furnish if anybody would get ice. A fellow passenger remarked he would do that if they would share with him. He left the car and came back with plenty, which was duly used. As a matter of course, in a short time another drick was proposed and the ice man kindly requested to furnish that necessary arcticle to a cocktail, but with his mouth watering for a drink, every look one of longing, he said: "Gentlemen, I want the drink, and I could turnish the ice, but I am afraid if I take any more off the corpse it will spoil. To say that the crowd felt sick, feebly expresses it, and when they found that the lice was from a corpse they did not swear Agitation in the world of homoepathic medicine has been its very soul of progress, as in politics and religion—the difficulties of opinion of our famous preparations—foremost in illus-tration of which truth stands the world-famous remedy to general debility and langour "Quin-ine Wine,"—and which, when obtainable in its fertility of the system. Quinine Wine, and its improvement, has from the first discovery of the great virtues of Quinine as a medical agent, been one of the most thoroughly discussed reme-dies ever offered to the public. It is one of the great tonics and natural life-giving stimulants which the medical profession have been compelled to recognize and prescribe. Messrs. Northrop & Lyman, of Toronto, have given to us in the preparation of their pure Quinine Wine the great care due to its importance, and the FOR SALE-5,000 feet of Pine Boards and Plank, standard excellence of the article which they offer to the public comes into the market purged of all the defects which skillful observation and
