Miscellaneous.
A WOMAN'S DRESS—Bob Burdette, in the course of an article in the Burlington Herald, says: Our wife wants a dress.
After two or three or half a dozen stores have been ransacked for clothes, the dressmaker is sought. The matter of measurement is tedious, and then the matter of fitting is one of numerous and repeated trials. Finally the dress is made and sent home. Then it is sent back to be taken in here and let out there, and at last, after the customer has been fitted more times for that one dress than her husband has been measured for three or four years, the dress comes home for the last time and is pronounced by the wearer, her friends, and the dressmaker as a beautiful and perfect fit, and is finished.
Beautiful it certainly is, for more beautiful than anything her husband has worn. Colored material, style, blending shades and contrasting tints of color, are all in the perfection of good taste.
No man can improve upon that. But it isn't finished. When it is completed as far as the skirt of the dress is not one American woman who can dress so as to make any kind of appearance in society without pins.
Now, suppose our tailor should send our suit home, and when we had put on the coat we had to pin it at the back?
Or suppose there was no suspender buttons at all, and we had to use pins there?
Suppose we had our shirts so we would have to pin on the collar—how long would such a skirt or suit be? Who would be responsible for the language used by the man who had to pin his coat? No tailor would dare to tempt the wrath of an independent man. But women do it.
They alms, as patiently, on the dress that also paid some one $30 or $40 to make, and doesn't think anything about it.
Let the women of America take it up, and think about it, and learn, in the independence of womanhood to make their clothes before they put them on.

Mothers! Mothers! Mothers!
Are you disturbed at night and broken your rest by a sick child coughing and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, at once get a bottle of Mrs. WINSLOW'S Soothing Syrup. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it who will not say at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relieve health of the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the name of CURTIS & PERKINS, Albany, N. Y., is on the wrapper. Sold by all Medicine Dealers. 25 cents a bottle. Beware of imitations—17-10.

A beautiful milk in Catilae
On the back of her neck has a blister,
When her lover forgot,
And lugged the sore spot,
Her screams could be heard for a mile?
