Aug. 4, 1882 Few places have finer natural scenery than has this locality. "A blending of all beauties stream and fell," and it needs but the hand of the millionaire to transfer it into an earthly paradise, namely a fashionable summer resort, as all the conditions thereof fishing, hunting, umbrageous forests, pleasant drives, &c., are here in profusion, while for manufacturing purposes the water power cannot be surpassed in America. Come and see for yourself, Messrs. Editors, that the picture is not overdrawn.

Mr Wm. Carrington expects to have his grist peration early in the season; the mill will be first-class in every respect when complete and fill a felt want in this County. By the way, we have a sensation in the person of Count Van Abilgard, from the father-land, who is rusticating in the country. The young ladies think he is just splendid and too too.

Woodstock, N. B. lack brain and nerve force, Mack's Magnetic Medicine, advertised in another column, supplies this want and thus cures when all other preparations fail. Sold in Woodstock, by Garden Bros.

Agitation in the world of homoepathic medicine has been its very soul of progress, as in politics and religion—the difficulties of opinion and the individuality of men have been parent to the disagreement by which the standard of these balies have been elevated. So with most tration of which truth stands the world-famous remedy to general debility and langour "Quinine Wine,"—and which, when obtainable in its genuine strength, is a miraculous creator of appending with the strength, is a miraculous creator of appending with the strength of the general with the strength of the strength petite, vitality and stimulant, to the general fertility of the system. Quinine Wine, and its improvement, has from the first discovery of the great virtues of Quinine as a medical agent, been one of the most thoroughly discussed remedies ever offered to the public. It is one of the great tonics and natural life-giving stimulants which the medical profession have been compelled to recognize and prescribe. Messrs. Northrop & Lyman, of Toronto, have given to us in the preparation of their pure Quinine Wine the great care due to its importance, and the standard excellence of the article which they offer to the public comes into the market purged of all the defects which skillful observation and scientific opinion has pointed out in the less perfect preparations of the past. All druggists sell it.
