Reading the following in a contemporary and remembering the fact that in the Maritime Provinces there is almost a perfect dearth of female home services, it can only be wondered at that there is not an influx from Britain, of women who have to submit to such comparative hardships, into the Dominion. We want emigrants to settle on our wild lands and populate our country, but at the present time of female help in our household is a more general want than in any other part of the world, there is a personal want. Could not the Local Government devote some inexpensive and practical way of securing a shipload of women able and willing to work and competent to learn the ways of our domestic life. The article referred to above is headed "Female Slaves in England," and says—

This imperative want should be supplied at once. And while on this point we may state that the Council should likewise provide for the maintenance of the church, when more than the present care can carry is wanted for use.

advocated many educational reforms for the Maritime Provinces, as well through the press, as by an exhaustive treatise which was extensively commented upon at the time of its publication.
Principal of Woodstock College, New Brunswick, which through his efforts was built and equipped. As an author Mr. Glendon is also known, and especially through a biography of Sir William Wallace, written by him some years ago, and now largely circulated. The material interest in his work has been covered by the Maritime Provinces, and in the following year, through his instrumentality, a colony was planted in New Brunswick, which is at present one of the most prosperous communities in the Province, and bears his name. He will long be remembered in the land in which he laboured and we are sincere sympathizers to his surviving family.

Says the Montreal Witness:—
The people of Prince Edward Island, where the Legislative Council is elective, have decided at the polls in favor of the retention of the franchise of the Legislature. There is doubtless a strong feeling in the Maritime Provinces in favor of retaining the shadow of the British system of government, and the fact that the Lower House with other available economies would not unlikely, judging from the force of the press of 1876, prevail against a change of franchise is a very real consideration in the province yet having one.

We are of opinion that the Witness judges the feeling in the Maritime Provinces, where we think, and in New Brunswick, especially, a popular vote would show that the franchise is regarded as unnecessary and useless.

HONORS to a New Brunswicker.—It will be remembered by our readers that a few months since we made reference to the fact that Mr. G. H. Hartley, formerly of this section, was a candidate for legislative honors, in Brainerd, Minn. We were pleased the other day, on glancing over the pages of the Brainerd Journal, to find that Mr. Hartley had been elected Representative. There were six candidates, and Mr. Hartley led the highest by 420 votes.

The Manitoba Legislature has been dissolved. Nomination and election take place on the 10th and 23rd January.

Provincial agriculturists have had the fame of being good and honest in their transactions, but even among these worthy people are to be found individuals who are greedy and dishonest. The day in the system of farming, and the other day no less a functionary than the Chief Justice of Nova Scotia had imposed upon him, in a tub of butter, a piece of gold grain.

It is now stated in Ottawa that the Princess Louise will spend the winter in British Columbia; but probably this is only one of the thousand and one of the kind which newspaper reporters have invented respecting Her Majesty.

The Quebec Government is about to appoint a special agent at London in the interests of immigration to that Province.

The United States Government are indemnifying parties in Canada who paid 20 per cent duty on hay, it having been decided that it is only legally liable to 11 per cent. It is said that millions of dollars will be thus returned to exporters.

The ladies of St. John have taken hold in earnest of the "Centennial" matter, and propose to erect a Memorial Hall. While the male portion of the citizens are theorizing, if not quarrelling, on the subject, the ladies are busy. A number of cattle have been run over and killed by the railway trains during a short time past in this parish.

Our little friend, Harry Stiles, who was so badly injured by falling from the top of a log pile, is slowly recovering from his injuries.

Please remember the Xmas tree and concert to the new Baptist Mission House on Xmas night; a high time may be expected, as our music is to be furnished by Dr. and Mrs. McKee. There will be a large number of people, and a young couple who are to be united in the happy bonds of matrimony at the close of the concert.

One of the English decisions on which Judge Galt's decision that a husband is not legally responsible for debts contracted: "Where a wife is living with her husband, and he is the sole provider for the family, he is bound to bind him by her contract for articles suitable to the station which he permits her to assume in the household, and he is not to be relieved by showing that this implied authority has been countermanded. And if a man privately forbids his wife to buy for credit, even though the tradesman has no knowledge of the fact, the husband cannot be made liable for goods furnished after such private revocation of the wife's authority."
