Mr. Dow is not only a very efficient teacher but In behalf of Reform Club Lodge, No. 61, I. also a young man of sterling qualities; and O.G.T. in our association with him as a member of community and, more especially, as a member of Lodge, we have found this fact truly apparent. He has very successfully taught the school of said District during the past term, and the warm expressions of regard went to Halifax last week to take part in given by the rate payers; also by the scholare who, at the close of the examination, tendered their teacher a vote of thanks for his tia, in which he had been retained. But the earnest efforts to advance them in their studies, I think fully satisfied Mr. Dow that Mr. Wetmore to appear. While not entitled mains such regards existed. The examination proper was very pleasant and entertaining, consisting of singing, recitations (some of them Province, our barristers have hitherto by of a very high order) by the scholars, as well courtesy been allowed to do so. as a thorough examination of the different branches studied, all of which was bigbly creditable to both pupils and teacher. few commendatory remarks were given by visitors, after which an adjournment was of the Bar Society with reference to members made until the evening at 7 30.

In the evening a large number of the residents of the community, rate-payers, visitors and pupils assembled. The meeting was opened by electing Rev. C. H. Orser to the chair. A song was then given by the choir, after which a very instructive and entertain ing address was delivered by Mr. Dow on "Education." He was followed by speeches held at the office of John McCaffery, Eeq , on from several gentlemen present; singing by the choir, with dialogues and recitations the scholars. At the close of the evening an address was given to Mr. Dow, signed by the year :-Trustees and a committee appointed for the purpose. An appropriate reply was given by Mr. Dow in which he thanked the people for their kind regard and wishes for his future welfare, after which "God save the Queen" was sung and the audience separated, after having spent one of the most pleasant and entertaining evenings ever enjoyed in our com- sociation for the ensuing year :-
