What does license mean? Some one abroad gives an answer, the correctness of which cannot be called into question. We commend the picture to the consideration of the representatives of any of our towns who may be asked to confer the terrible "ordination:" "Look now at the ordination of a candidate for the ministry of rum. He stands before the city fathers. He is called to sell rum; has the evidence within him. A congenial brother of the same communion recommends him to the extent of a thousand dollars. He is looked over. He will do. He pays his money; for this ministry can be bought. He puts his hand upon the devil's document, a rumseller's license, and he goes out regularly set apart by the ordination, which means this: 'Take thou authority to tempt men.' 'Take thou authority to change men into beasts.' 'Take thou authority to stain the streets with their blood.'-Take thou authority to desolate homes to break hearts, to ruin souls. 'Take thou authority to mark your way through the world with all wickedness, and when you stand before the Eternal Judge-

SUBSTITUTES!

The public are cautioned against a custom which s growing quite common of late among a certain class of medicine dealers, and which is this: When asked f r a bottle of Pain-Killer, they swidenly discover that they are "sold out." "but have another article ju t as good, if not better." which they will supply at the same price. The object of this deception is transparent. The ibstitutes are made up to sell on the great reputation of the Pain-Killer; and being compounded of the vies and cheapest drugs, are bought by the dealer at about half what he pays for the genuine Pain-Killer, which enables him therefore to realize a few cents more profi per bottle upon the imitation article than he can en the FOR CHOLERA MORBUS, CRAMPS,
