directly opposite Post Office, up stairs. WE think it is time that a protest " loud and long" should be raised against the demoralising system of rushing through the most important measures in the Legislature during its latest bours. And it is all the more to be condemned when such measures are introduced, and such unseemly haste allowed, at the close not only of a session, but at the close of a term of the local Parliament. The session of the Legislature just closed has been notable for the large number of bills passed, but also notable for no single measure calculated to give force to the almost universal expression of the public will in the direction of greater economy in the public expenditure; indeed the tendency has been rather in the other direction, and while there has been no step taken in the way of bringing about a change in the constitution of the Legislature; in the way of a consolidation of offices, there have been measured adopted which involve very large additional charges upon the public chest. while a new County Court Judge is provided for, notwithstanding the fact that those most interested, locally, in the appointment, and those best qualified to judge, have emphatically declared that there exists no necessity whatever for this addition to the County
