LITERARY NOTICES .- Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly -The September Number presents a host of bright attractions, of which we can only name a few : "Treaty of Paris, September 1783," "The French Stage," "The Tea Commerce of New York," "A Sentimental Journey to Two Homes of Edgar Poe," The Thames Embankments," and "Nell Gwynn," are the prominent articles, each profusely illustrated. The exciting serial, "The Beautiful Countess of Clairville," is continued and a new one commenced, "True to Untruth," and there are a great many short stories, sketches, adventures, etc , by popular writers, of exceeding interest, together with poems of unusual merit. Amongst the contributors to this number are: J. E. Runtz Rees, E. Battersby, Amanda M. Douglass
H. Barton Baker, Lieutenant H D. Smith, N. Robinson, Kate T. Robinson, Oscar W. Riggs, Henry Tyrrell, C. Rossetti, Audrey Frere, W. O Stoddard, Philip Bourke Marston, etc., etc. Price 25 cents; $3 a year postpaid. Address, Mrs. Frank Leslie, Publisher, 53, 55 and 57 Park Place, New York.

The September number of Our Little Ones and The Nursery, is crowded full of good things for the children. Invest $1 50 in a year's subscription and make the little ones happy. Russell Publishing Co., Boston, Mass.; terms $1.50 per year.

The numbers of The Living Age for August 18th and 25th contain, The Real Lord Byron, Quarterly; Half a Century of Literary Life, London Quarterly; John Richard Green, by EDWARD A. FREEMAN, British Quarterly; Classic Conceptions of Heaven and Hell, Westmin: ster; Cave Tooms in Galilee, Fortnightly; Terry Wigan, Blackwood; The North Farm: New, by J. E. Panton, Tinsley; Voltaire in England, Cornhill; The Empress Eugenie's Flight to England, Temple Bar; Grace Darling, Leisure Hour; Sea Island Cotton, Chamber's Journal; Benvenuto Cellini, All the Year Round; with instalments off "Uncle George's Will, and "Along the Silver Streak," and Poetry.
For fifty-two numbers of sixty-four large pages each (or more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($8) is low; while for the subscription price ($8) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies with The Living Age for a year, both postpaid Littell & Co., Boston, are the publishers. Harper's Magazine for September is an exceedingly attractive Number, varied in its contents, and richly illustrated. One of the most timely of its articles is that on "Recent Build? ings in New York"—an intelligent critical esti-mate of the "New Departure" in architecture illustrated by eighteen characteristic pictures. which are guaranteed the best value ever offered FRANK D. MILLET contributes the first of two articles on Dalecarlia, Sweden, full of quaint description, and beautifully illustrated from drawings by the author, T. DE THULSTRUP.

MRS. LUCY LILLIE writes, in her most charming style, of the Catskills. Her article is magnificently illustrated by HARRY FENN. Under the title of "Haunts of the Swamp Fox," P. D. Hvy gives some very novel and interesting information concerning Francis Marion, the Revolutionary hero of South Carolina, with illustrations. Paul Potter, the old Dutch master, is the subject of a brief paper by E. MASON, with three illustrations, including a picture of The Editorial departments are full of timely and interesting matter. The Editor's Drawer, conducted by Mr. CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER, is especially entertaining.

Cor. Main & Court Sts., Woodstock, N. B. The School Board of London, England, have decided, after considerable discussion, to add the elements of social economy to the list of subjects that may be taught. In Ontario there is a clamor on all sides for a more zenship-to raise the moral stature of the growing generation. On the other side, it is sought to have recourse to religious influences. But the object aimed at is, or at least ought to be, the same. Religion, in the sense of dogma or creeds, would be an abom-ination in our schools. But as a power operating to the harmonizing and humanizing of men, it would find a place there very appro-

A sensational report comes from Ogden, to the effect that a party of cow-boys has organized for the purpose of capturing President Arthur scrofula and holding him for a ransom of $500,000. From statistics recently published it appears that there are in the world no fewer than 3,985 paper mills, producing every year 959,000 tons of paper from all kinds of substances, including rags, straw and alfalfa. About one half is printed upon; and of these 476,000 tons of paper, nearly 300,000 tons are used by newspapers.
