Who is Perry Davis?

About forty years ago when Perry Davis, of Providence, R. I., in the United States, first introduced to the world his now universally known Pain-Killer, he was a poor man without influence, a cripple and an invalid. He studied the effect of certain drugs upon the human system, and experimented in their uses until he had compounded a medicine capable of curing his own maladies. When restored to health, he offered the preparation to his fellow sufferers, until now there is not a country on

Hang Up Baby's Stocking. Hang up the baby's stocking, Be sure you don't forget. The little dimpled darling ! She ne'er saw Christmas yet But I've told her all about it. And I'm sure she understands it,

Dear! what a tiny stocking! It doesn't take much to bo'd Such little pink toes as baby's Away from the frost and cold. But then, for the baby's Christmas It will never do at all.

She looks so funny and wise.

Why, Santa wouldn't be looking For anything half so small! I know what we'll do for the baby,
I've thought of the very best plan,
I'll borrow a stocking of grandma— The longest that ever I can: And you'll hang it by mine, dear mother Right here in the corner, so. And write a letter to Santa,

And fasten it on to the toe. Write-"This is the baby's stocking. That bangs in the corner, here. You never have seen her Santa. For she only came this year; But she's just the blessedest baby And now before you go,

Just cram her stockings gith goodies From the top clean down to the toe.' The Song of Santa Claus. What do I do the whole year round? I work with tools that make no sound.

I have often traveled up and down the river in the spring time. when nature had just donned her fresh mantle of green, and the song of the merry plowman mingling with that of the feathered warblers made everything seem joyous. Later I have seen the hillsides covered with the ripening grain waving in the summer breeze, which brought to my ears the rattle of the mowing machine drawn through the grass by the sturdy horses, which settled down to their task as though they knew that the result of their labors would furnish them with many a hearty meal when the fields were covered thick with snow. These scenes of beauty had passed and the fields, which a few weeks ago looked so lovely with their carpets of grass and grain, now looked bare and barren, The few leaves which still clung to the Only about half the number of trains en- boughs of the trees were of a bue which harmonized with the desolate features of the ground beneath.
