LITERARY NOTICES .- Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly. The March number is one of the most interesting that has yet appeared of this attractive Magazine. The opening article by Noel Ruthven, "From Balmoral to Osborne," with its eleven fine illustrations, is admirable; and the following will well repay the reader:
"Cyclones and Tornadoes," by F. Grundy;
"Gustavus Adolphus of Sweeden," by Alfred
H. Guernsey; "Fires in Theatres and their Pre-H. Guernsey; "Fires in Theatres and their Prevention," by Horace Townsend; "Tongues from Tombs—The Mounds of the United States and the Tombs of Peru," &c., &c. They are elaborately illustrated. In the department of fiction are contributions by W. O. Stoddard, E. S. Kenneth, May Russell, Spencer W. Cone, W. Edgar McCane, &c., &c. There are interesting sketches and adventures, poems of great merit, and a new serial of great interest is commenced, entitled, "The Beautiful Countess of Clairville" The miscellany is comprehensive, amusing and instructive, and the embellishments excellent. A chromo is given with each number. "For Life or Death" is the title of the present one. Price, 25 cents a copy; $3 a year, postpaid.
