

Northampton Items.
Now that the election is over and the shaking, the house to house peregrinations, the inevitable house-to-house, the corner to corner, the promise-making, the tax-paying and all other things connected therewith, and on having for the second time laid aside this year, and the household affairs having arisen from the dog-rout system of former years, business will now assume its buoyant activities.
Water is again upon us, and the weather-wise have begun their wintery prognostications.
The day of election day, several parties had valuable whips stolen from their carriages at Grafton; it is hoped that the locality has not fallen from grace, as rumor has it that hot root rollers and whiskey vendors are abroad also.
The day school in district No. 3 recently underwent its semi-annual examination very creditably. Mr. Annie Plummer, the efficient tutor, will remain in charge during the winter. At the annual meeting of rate payers in this district, the sum of $200 was voted for school purposes. Mr. T. A. Ball was elected Trustee and Mr. Wm. Montell, Auditor; the board of trustees now consist of Messrs. John Rogers, H. N. Cunnell and G. A. Ball.
The Sabbath school at Central Northampton is making extensive preparations for the Christmas. The people in this place intend making an effort to build a large school next summer, for preaching services, Sabbath school and secular purposes.
The cemetery at Greenback, has been put in order, the grounds having been cleaned up, and many costly stones and monuments have recently been placed in memory of loved ones; among others we may mention a very handsome monument erected by the Gilman family. This cemetery is one of the most beautiful in the County.
Services are very seldom held in the Kirk here, and it has been a long time since the old bell rang out to call the many worshippers who were wont to assemble within its walls.
Mr. S. Tompkins, Esq., has built a fine new residence during the summer, near Gibson's Mills. The square has moved into the old part. Mr. S. Tompkins has also a new house, into which Mr. A. Walden, of Kilmarnock, will move.
A very pleasant gathering of young people took place at the residence of Mr. Nathan Rogers on Friday evening of last week.
Dr. Nix, the enterprising proprietor of Nix's Liniment, is about to establish his laboratory at Ferrisville.
Deacon Rogers having disposed of his valuable "grey mare" to "Bob," is anxious to purchase another of equal speed and gentleness.
Funerals.—Mr. A. A. Rogers will shortly return to Aitkin, Minn.; he will be accompanied by his sister and Mr. Alex. Rogers. Mr. Rogers, of the Brighton Engineers, intends entering the Royal Military College, at Kingston, Ont., this winter.
We are pleased to announce that Frank Cliff, Esq., is recovering from his recent illness.
Arlington Heights, Mass., Items.
Perhaps you would like to hear from your old correspondent, even though he now hails from this section of Uncle Sam's dominion.
Arlington Heights is a suburb of Boston, about six miles remote from that city, but in immediate and constant communication with each other through the means of the street and horse cars, which are running continually.
Gardening is carried on here quite extensively, the possessor of an acre or two of land can make a good living out of it. One can put their land into use about nine months in the year here. Late as it is in the season, people here are now raising spinach, celery and cauliflower, all of which command a high price in the Boston market.
The weather here at present, writing, and preceding it, is and has been delightful. There has been no cold weather or frosty nights as yet; green is green and growing and house plants will remain out of doors.
A good variety of fruit grows here in its season, and generally a fine crop.
While in Boston the other day we visited Quinry market for the purpose of examining a large cheese on exhibition. It was a monster, weighing 625 lbs., 4 ft. 8 in. in diameter, 4 ft. 4 in. in circumference, 10 ft. 8 in. in height, and was made especially for Gars, Dea. & Co., of Boston, and will be cut the Saturday before Christmas.
Lower Wakefield Items.
The examination of the school at Lower Wakefield, taught by Miss Eugenia Cox, came off Wednesday, Oct. 31st. Quite a number of visitors were present. The scholars were examined in all the various branches taught, each one answering the questions promptly and correctly, which did credit to the teacher as well as to themselves. After all was over, the teacher came in laden with a basket of brown nuts and other delicacies, which were distributed among the children, all seeming to be pleased and happy, excepting one or two visitors who did not believe in our present school system.
Our young men still keep going, and two more have left, Messrs. Geo. and Wm. Haley. Two of our young men, Messrs. Theo. Herring, and Wm. L. Brown, are also attending school in Woodstock, where they will receive instruction in classics.
Our Sabbath School is in quite a flourishing condition, and will likely be an evergreen school, as the interest seems to be increasing.
Centerville Items.
Our Sabbath School is doing a good work; its average attendance is good.
The Temperance Lodge is well attended, and the members are hoping that now the Temperance Alliance has been formed, with each Vice-President in each Parish, a united effort will be made to drive the rum traffic from our midst. We trust the Alliance won't end in talk.
One day last week G. E. McClintock, while working at J. E. Alexander's moulding plant had two of his fingers caught in the machine and nearly cut off, while he tried one way or another to get his fingers free.
Dr. Hovey desired them and hopes to save the fingers.
Our hotel is doing a thriving business, this fall; "William" is a very obliging landlord.
Our carriage makers are very busy fitting up their sleighs for next month's trade; they find, as do those parties building, the planer and ax and moulding place of J. E. Alexander very handy on which to prepare their lumber.
T. W. Lunn has commenced a single class in White's Hall.
Business is quite good both with our traders and mechanics.
Report says that one of our young ladies is going south as a missionary, doubtless making some elegant $5 better off before she leaves. We wish her success.
As it is the usual custom for our local Government to appoint a lot of J. P.'s just before retiring from power, we may presume that our present local Government will soon be dissolved.
Joseph Emery, of Williamstown, has a colt 17 months old that weighs 980 lbs.
South Newburg Items.
A few days ago we had a visit from a young mouse. He did not receive as kind a welcome as he anticipated when he visited our stables, for one of our farmers followed him several miles with his gun. Fortunately for Mr. Mouse he was a better pedestrian than Mr. E.
Our prominent citizen, Mr. Louis Coombs, is about to leave us. We miss his Grafton's grin.
Our halls here are well patronized by our friends in W. Professor Albert is making a little fortune. Like takes the cake for an eight time.
