Miscellaneous.

A sad Western tale—"The boy stood on the back-yard fence whence all but him had fled. The flames that lit his father's barn shone just above the shed. One bunch of crackers in his hand, two others in his hat; with piteous accent loud he cried, 'I never thought of that.' A bunch of crackers to the tail of one small dog he tied; the sparks flew wide and red, and hot; they lit upon the brat; they fired the crackers in his hand and lit those in his hat. Then came a burst of rattling round—the boy, where was he gone? Ask the winds that far around strewed bits of meat and bone, and scraps of clothes, and balls and tops, and nails, and books, and yarn, the relics of that dreadful boy that burned his father's barn."

Josh Billings heard from.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 11, 1880.

Dear Bitters—I am here trying to breathe in all the salt air of the ocean, and having been a sufferer for more than a year with a refractory liver, I was induced to mix Hop Bitters with the sea gale, and have found the tincture a glorious result. * * * I have been greatly helped by the Bitters, and am not afraid to say so.

Yours without a struggle,
JOSH BILLINGS.

The Rev Dr. Miller tells a good anecdote illustrating the popular idea entertained about the three leading professions. He says an anxious father consulted a seer to find out, if possible, the destiny of his three boys. To his great dismay, the man of knowledge declared:—"One will be a murderer, another a falsifier, and the third a pauper living on the town." As the good father began to bewail his lot, the seer added:—"Do not mourn; those are the common lots of men. Your first son will be a doctor, the second a lawyer, and the third a country clergyman."

For Cramps, pain in the Stomach, Bowel Complaint or Chills, use Perry Davis' Pain Killer See adv. in other column.

The Bishop of Wurtzburg asked a little shepherd boy: "What are you doing my little lad?" "Tending swine." "How much do you get?" "One florin a week." "I am also a shepherd," continued the Bishop, "but I have a much better salary." "That may all be, but then I suppose you have more swine under your care, innocently replied the boy.

For Toothache, Burns, Cuts and Rheumatism, use Perry Davis' Pain Killer. See adv. in other column.

MANHOOD
HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED!

We have recently published a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to marriage, etc, resulting from excesses.

☞Price, in sealed envelope, only 6 cents, or two postage stamps.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicines or use of the knife; pointing out a cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

☞This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
