THE NEW WEEKLY JOURNAL.

Responding to the demands of the time, it has been decided to bring out in Toronto on the first Thursday of the present month a weekly newspaper, to be called The Week, and to be published every succeeding Thursday. It is understood the proprietors are Messrs. Goldwin Smith and C. Blackett Robinson; and the last named gentleman will be the publisher. Nothing on the one hand need be said of Mr. Goldwin Smith, whose connection with the paper will help to make easy its introduction to a considerable portion of the public, or, upon the other, of the energy and business capacity of the publisher, Mr. Blackett Robinson. The editor, as is announced in the prospectus, is Mr. Charles G. D. Roberts, of New Brunswick, a gentleman well known in the best literary circles of Canada and New York, and who combines the rare quality of excellent literary equipment with a practical head, and that firm hand without which all other qualifications in an editor of a paper who will have to receive so much, and discriminate so nicely, and expel so heartlessly, go for naught. The prospectus of this new paper promises much, but looking at those connected with it, it does not seem that its claims pass the bounds of modesty or the practicable. The paper "will appeal by a comprehensive table of contents to the different tastes which exist within the circle of a cultured home, and will endeavor faithfully to summarize the intellectual, social and political movements of the day." In all matters The Week will be independent, and its tone, though high and wide in range as that of the leading English and American first class periodicals, will smack distinctly of the soil of Canada. The paper will reflect the higher thought of the country, political and literary. In literature there is a yearning for something national and worthy of a nation, and to this aspiration it will lend a strong hand; in politics there is a desire to get out of the harness of party, and in The Week all who aim for such freedom will find an ally. Mr. Goldwin Smith will contribute at intervals reviews of current events at home and abroad. Dr. Grant, of Queen's University, will furnish a series of papers which are to be called "Down the Kicking Horse and across the Selkirks," descriptive of a tour made through a portion of the North West of which no information has hitherto been given to the public. Mr. Edgar Fawcett, one of the foremost of American novelists, has been engaged to write a story of New York society, to be called "The Adventures of a Widow," and several other serials and short stories from well known pens will appear from time to time. Not the least valuable part of the paper's contents will be a series of critical essays on the "Younger American Poets," by Mr. Roberts himself; and there will likewise be from time to time biographical papers, poems and "sketches of travel and papers descriptive of places interesting from their scenery or their associations." From all this and taking account of the energetic canvass and liberal outlay made by the proprietors, it is not too much to predict a brilliant success for this new and promising venture in the higher journalism.

Upper Woodstock Items.

A number of the young people of this village, with the laudable object of raising funds to lay a sidewalk from here to Woodstock, have organized themselves into a Dramatic Company, and purpose giving several entertainments during the winter. The success they have had on former occasions warrants the belief that their plans will meet with equal favor now. Their first entertainment will be given here a few days before Christmas, further particulars of which will be published in due time.

The factory of Mr. A. Henderson is very busy preparing articles for the holiday season. His imported goods for that time are now arriving, and will present a selection from which any one can be easily and well suited.

Since winter has set in, large quantities of hay are being exported by Mr. G. R. Ketchum. As it is more easily handled in the pressed form he is having more of his hay pressed in the barns of the seller rather than on his own premises as before.

Mr. David Phillips is making preparations to introduce steam power into his tannery. When those arrangements are completed, he will give attention to the manufacture of sole leather, an article of which he makes but little now. Mr James McDonald has charge of the shop.

The Presbyterians propose holding their first Sociable this season at Mr. A. Henderson's, on Tuesday evening next. These gatherings are to take the place of the weekly meetings of the Mite Society of last winter and will be held monthly. More extensive preparations than before will be made to insure a good time, and the inner wants of the man will be provided for as well as his mental requirements. We hope that the pioneer meeting will be the successful index of those to follow.

The N. B. Railway, in order to meet the wants of the travelling public at this station, have restored the platform and given travellers the privilege of taking shelter in Mr. Ketchum's hay cars that stand on the siding. For these favors how thankful we are!

Hartland Items.

"Observer" kindly sends us the following:—

The Free Baptists (more commonly known as the Orscrites) have been holding a series of meetings with good results. Rev. W. A. Morang has labored earnestly to strengthen the church, and with a fair amount of success; eight have been baptized.

Business is still lively and so is the weather at present, but I hope nothing more serious, than cold feet and noses to those who have to be out will be the result.

Florenceville Items.

Dec. 4, 1883

Winter appears to have fairly set in. We have enough of snow for fair sleighing. The river is frozen over and there is good crossing for foot passengers.

There is very little water in the wells in this section, owing to the absence of the usual heavy fall rains; many of our best springs are dry.

A Cantata, to be performed about New Year, is being prepared by the Methodist Sunday School and promises to be a good thing. As this is something new in the place, no doubt it will be liberally patronized.

A sidewalk through the village is being talked of. A committee of ladies have the matter in charge. The proceeds of a Concert and Christmas Tree on Christmas Eve will be appropriated to that purpose.

M. A. Burtt has opened a fine stock of dry goods in the Tracey stand. Mr. Burtt sells for "pay down," either cash or produce.

Rev. D. D. Currie preached in the Congregationalist Meeting House, on Sunday, at 2 30 p. m. A collection was taken for the Centennial Memorial Fund.

Benton Items.

Nov. 29, 1883.

On the first of December we are to have a regular station agent at this place, which will be a great boon to the business men and ticket buyers. Heretofore, goods for this station from St. John or elsewhere had to be prepaid, and goods for St. John had to be way-billed at Canterbury Station. After this, under the management of Alex. Stevenson, the accommodating telegraph operator, and newly appointed Agent, we hope things will run more smoothly. The N. B. Railway Co. seems determined to meet the wants of small stations along the line when possible.

The ladies of Benton have started a weekly prayer meeting. It is held Thursday p. m. It is well attended and is proving a great strength and blessing to those who go. Other villages might follow such an example to great advantage.

A weekly Bible Reading, open to all, is held the same evening, at the Church, and is very interesting.

As a tonic and nervine for debilitated women nothing surpasses Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription." By druggists.

A STRANGE PEOPLE.

Do you know there are strange people in our community? We say strange because they seem to prefer to suffer and pass their days miserably, made so by Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Indigestion and General Debility when Davis' Quinine Iron and Wine will cure them. Sold by Garden Bros. 50 cents per bottle, 6 bottles for $2.50.

Dr. McLean's Vegetable Worm Syrup.—The children cry for it; mothers sigh for it; everybody praises it. Safe, pleasant and effectual; 25 cts.

To be Dyspeptic is to be miserable. Dyspepsia is a disease in which a thousand ills seem to be combined, yet its origin in very many instances may be traced to nothing more than an improper assimilation of the food. To remedy this is to cure the disease. By the use of Hanington's Quinine Wine and Iron, and Tonic Dinner Pills, the organs of Digestion are strengthened, the food is assimilated readily, and the disease is eradicated. Many who have suffered the indescribable torments of Dyspepsia for years owe the restoration of their health and strength to the use of these medicines. Beware of imitations. See that you get "Hanington's," the original and genuine. For sale by all druggists and general dealers in Canada.

"Malden, Mass., Feb. 1, 1880. Gentlemen—I suffered with attacks of sick headache."

Neuralgia, female trouble, for years in the most terrible and excruciating manner.

No medicine or doctor could give me relief or cure until I used Hop Bitters.

My husband was an invalid for twenty years with a serious

Seven bottles of your bitters cured him and I know of the
