The programme of visitation thus far dye warranted true to name and sample. laid out is as follows :- Monday afternoon, 16th

21st, Chas. McLean's. The public temperance meeting on Saturday evening was largely attended and at its close a number of signatures to the pledge were obtained. The Gospel temperance meeting Sabbath afternoon was addressed by Mr. Chubbuck who was listened to by an audience which completely filled the Town Hall.

Mr. S. J. Parsons, the Secretary of the Carleton Co. S S. Convention, has begun a visitation of the several Sabbath Schools of the County. On Saturday evening Mr. Parsons addressed a public meeting at Bath, and on Sunday forenoon visited the Sabbath school at that place. which he found in a healthy condition. Sunday afternoon he visited the Bristol Sabbath School; BRUSSELS CARPETS, which was also found to be in excellent working condition, and in the evening hs advocated the claims of Sabbath Schools before a largely at-dended public meeting. The railway bridge at Upper Woodstock took fire from a spark from a passing train one day last week; the flames were extinguished without

On Monday evening St. Paul's Presbyterian Church took the necessary steps in extending a call to the Rev. Mr. McDougall, to become their Pastor. The Rev. gentleman filled the pulpit of the Church for two Sabbaths this winter, when he gave evidence of more than ordinary ability. While the Town Council are now paying cousiderable attention to the Fire Department, try-ing to render it as effective as possible, we trust they will not longer neglect to provide for fire purposes suitable hooks and ladders, without

Dr. Sharp was telegraphed for and went down but could do nothing but ease the sufferings of the dying man.

The dwelling house of Joseph Crawford, South Richmond, was burned down on Monday. The barns were saved. Loss $1,500; house and barns insured in Western, for $1,000.

Victoria Corner Items. April 10, 1883.

Victoria Corner continues to be the cynosure of the lovers of temperance; on Wednesday evening last a philic meeting was held at the F. C. B. Church; and the vestry was packed to its utmost capacity. Rev. John Perry led off with a stirring half hour's speech, which was attentively listened to; the Rev. gentleman is too well known as a public speaker for me to eulogize his Wednesday night's effort in this letter. All we need say, and we think we reiterate the sentiments of all present, we would like to have listened longer. Rev, A. Rideout, of Somerville, next addressed the meeting, and said many good things, as he generally does. G. W. Boyer, Esq., made some appropriate remarks, and concluded by reading a scathing denunciation on the Rum traffic. The reading would possibly had a far better effect, had not most of the audience known it originated from the Atheistical pen of Col. R G. Ingersoll. Prof. Ed. White was next called on, and cleverly responded, treating his hearers to a veritable bear story, and in duty bound we must confess, we have heard very many stories, including all sorts of "fish stories," but for a real genuine "bear story," Ed. takes the cake. The meeting was then closed, and as the last words of the "Benediction" died away all separated, feeling well pleased with the evening's entertainment. The Smith and Boyer mill, which is generally in full blast during the winter season, has been closed down since October last, but will resume work this month. They anticipate a good
