TERRIBLE CALAMITY — FEARFUL LOSS OF LIFE — ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND PERSONS PERISH.—Batavia, Aug. 29 — Volcanic eruptions in Java began off the Island of Krakatoa in the Strait of Sunda, 100 miles from the coast of Java, on Saturday night. On Sunday the disturbances had extended beneath the waters of the strait, causing great waves and a raise of 20 degrees in the temperature of the sea. The disturbance was felt 500 miles away. By noon, Mahameru, the largest volcano in Java, was in violent eruption, and shortly Gunnung, the crater of which is the largest in the world, and fifteen of the other forty-five craters in Java were either in active eruption or seriously threatened. At dusk, Gunnung sent out streams of white arid, sulphurous mud with explosive cinders and stones which carried death all about the valley. The clouds were charged with electricity. Fifteen waterspouts were seen simultaneously. The inhabitants fled terror-stricken. A hundred were buried under the houses and crushed by masses of rocks and mud. Gunnung Tengger, which had not had an eruption since 1800, shot out great red hot boulders which crushed through the huts of the Chinese fishermen and fissures and yawning chasms appeared. The fertile valley covered with flourishing plantations were now but mud and stone, and lava covered the fields with destruction. Probably not a single crop in Java is saved. At the entrance to Batavia was a large group of houses occupied by Chinamen. This portion is entirely swept away. Of 25,000 Chinese about 5,000 are saved. Of 3,500 Europeans, 800 perished. At Anjar the European and American quarter was first overwhelmed by rocks, mud and lava, then the waters came up and swallowed the ruins, leaving nothing, and causing a loss of 200 lives. Bantam, once a prosperous native city, abandoned by Europeans many years ago, was entirely covered by water and 1200 to 1400 drowned. The island of Serang was completely inundated and not a soul remains. At Cheribon the loss of life and property is considerable. Batezarg suffered very seriously, as did Samarang, Jugkakerto, Sourakerta and Sonrabaya, while the meagre reports from lesser towns indicate their loss is great in proportion. Last advices report the eruptions continuing, but the violence had abated somewhat.

London, Aug. 29.—Details of the volcanic eruption in Java state that on the northeast corner of the island the waves rushed up on the shore to an unprecedented height. When daylight came it was seen an enormous tract of land had disappeared, extending from Point Capachin on the south to Negery Pelsoerang on the north, and west to low water point, covering an extent of territory of about 30 miles square. In this were situated the villages of Negery and Negery Babawanga. None of the people inhabiting these places, or of natives scattered sparcely through the forests and plains escaped death. This section of the island was not so densely populated as other portions, and the loss of life is comparatively small, although it must aggregate fully fifteen thousand souls. The entire Kandang range of mountains, extending along the coast in a semi circle for about 65 miles, has gone out of sight. The waters of Welcome Bay, Sunda Straits, and Pepper Bay, on the west, and of Indian Ocean on the south, had rushed in and formed a sea of turbulent waters. Here and there the peak of a crater was exposed for a moment by the receding of the great waves, and occasionally a puff of brownish gray smoke, or a slight shower of rocks, showed that the volcanoes still continued in active subaqueous eruption. The debris of submerged and destroyed buildings was tossed hither and thither on the water—the only sign left that there had once been inhabited land there. The town of Taverang, within twenty-five miles of the city of Batavia, was swept away by a lava stream, and fully half the population, mostly Japanese, numbering 1800, perished. At Spelwyk, near Point Salois, red hot rocks set fire to houses and swept away all the settled portion of the town. About ten bazaars belonging to Europeans were destroyed. The loss to property is very large, but no lives are known to have been lost. The river Jacatra, on the banks of which Batavia is situated, was so completely dammed by lava and debris that its course was changed, and from Franien Bastion on it flowed down through Tygers street and joined the waters of the river Emerades, swelling that stream to such an extent that it rose high on castor-batteries. Figelenknig was almost totally destroyed and a large number of lives was lost there. The island of Oniue, five miles off the mouth of Targecang river, and twenty miles east of Batavia, was completely inundated and the floating dock there totally destroyed. Cantage Claps and Fronwers, islands off the portion of Java which disappeared, are out of sight and not a vestige of them is left. Baby and Cheribo islands, off the north coast, lost the few houses and the inhabitants upon them. In Batavia the loss has been largely increased since the former reports. The roof of the governor's house was crushed in by a mass of mud, and three of the retainers were killed. The town bridge was destroyed. Diamond and pearl bastions were badly damaged, and Barran Redoubt was destroyed. In Caymand, Malabar and Lion streets, the principal avenues of the city, the damage was very great. Fort Antyoi was entirely destroyed. The town of Faggal was severely shaken. A few buildings were left standing. A violent shock was felt on the Island of Sumatra Monday, and it was feared other disturbances might follow. Midah Island, 10 miles off the Javanese coast, and half way between the extreme points of Java and Sumatra, was almost wholly engulfed by the sea. The aggregate loss of life must be fully 75,000, but the number of those who perished can never, of course, be accurately known.

London, Aug. 31.—Further reports from Batavia state that in the city of Bantam, where 1500 persons were at first supposed to have perished, 2800 bodies have already been recovered. Some 900 inhabitants of the interior town of Waronge are now known to have been killed; and at Taltara, on the coast, 300 bodies were found. From all over the Island comes reports of loss of life and property, and it is thought at Batavia that the estimate of 75,000 killed will not prove excessive.

Batavia, Aug. 31.—The captain of a steamer which was in the Serait of Sunda during the recent volcanic eruptions, reports that ashes fell on the deck of his vessel to the depth of eighteen inches, and that he passed masses of floating pumice stone, seven feet in depth. It is estimated that 10,000 persons lost their lives at Tjiringin, and that the total number of persons killed by the eruption and tidal waves is 30,000.

On the lowlands of Batavia, where the waters receded and quieted down, hundreds of bruised and mangled bodies are lying exposed.

BERLIN, Sept. 3.—Seventeen men, eighteen women and four children were killed at Sieglitz, on Sunday, by a train dashing into a large crowd. The track for 100 yards was covered with mutilated bodies.

ALEXANDRIA, Sept 2.—An official report shows that since the outbreak of cholera 27,318 deaths have occurred in Egypt. There have been 140 deaths among the British troops stationed in Egypt.

After Sept. 10th, the Thursday trip of the International Line from St. John, and the Saturday trip from Boston will be discontinued, making four trips a week for the remainder of the month.

Men in England now live two years longer, and women three and a third longer, than they did thirty years ago.

LOYAL ORANGE BROTHERHOOD.—The committee appointed for the revision of the Orange degree ritual met last night and agreed upon a draft ritual which will be both interesting and instructive, and a great improvement on the old. The purple and blue degrees were discussed, and the feeling was strongly in favour of doing away with these degrees altogether, the Orange royal arch and scarlet being the degrees on which they propose to work the L. O. B., but no decision was arrived at, the discussion on the subject being postponed till next meeting. The committee on the revision of the constitution reported progress.—Toronto Globe, Aug. 24.

This refers to the new movement to separate the Orange organization from politics.—St. John Globe.

CERTAIN CHECK!

Is speedily making its way into every family in the land. Its sale has more than doubled during the past year, on its own merits, and all are satisfied that it is purely vegetable and a perfectly safe and harmless medicine, and at the same time a certain and positive cure for DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, and all other kinds of violent pain and cramp.

No family should be without it in the house one day, as it may save life before a physician can be called, and will certainly save a great amount of suffering and perhaps a long sickness by its early use.

For children of all ages it is just the thing. Infants take it in smaller doses with perfect success, being pleasant to the taste and giving instant relief. A few of the numerous testimonals may be seen in pamphlets or around each bottle.

Price only 25 cents. Try it once and you won't be without it.
