It is the only route for the P. E. I. winter mail service, and is the proposed terminate of the care of Hop Bitters.

If you are sick with that terrible sickness Nervousness, you will find a "Balm in Gilead" in the use of Hop Bitters.

Anot be outdone for kindness and care should any visitors who seek a place of rest in what is most conspicuous for its absence, viz., a hotel.

Cape Journain, where the ice-boats land with the mails, is two miles across the marsh from the mails, is two miles across the marsh from generally, Hop Bitters will give you fair skin, rich blood, and sweetest breath, health, and is a house of the stomach, but the stomach, other places where fire is used, in order to other places where fire is used, in order to other places where fire is used, in order to other places where fire is used. This house is run by the notable "Tom Allen."

He says everybody knows him, and he would not cure or help.

That noor be mer resort. We can boast of a beautiful sandy of health, by a few bottles of Hop Bitters, costbeach for bathing purposes, and water as clean as spring water, to cool the heated body. A boat, owned by Crane & Harper, merchants, has been frequently sent off on a fine summer's day to give a free trip to the many who do even now visit this place during dog days. There is nearly always a wind blowing in summer, making the place remarkably cool and pleasant. We have no Masonic Halls or towering steeples to mark the place from the waters, but we have a Town Hall, nearly crumbling to dust; a school house which is seeing its last days, for a new one is to be built this summer, and a shurch which is the birth place of many a poor soul. There is only one church, that a Methodist, for this section of the Province is greatly Methodist. The Rev. W. J. Kirby has been pastor for nearly three years, and in that time has succeeded in purchasing the finest property in the place for a parsonage. Grane & Harper is the oldest firm, Mrs. McGlashing next, and J. B. Allen & Co. last. Raglein Allen is our village blacksmith, and Jas, Dobson is the itinerant shoemaker. Our farmers, as a rule, are very comfortably situated, and we have very little opportunity to enjoy the luxury of giving to the poor. The houses in a bunch could be easily counted, but all the country around is so thickly settled it is hard to know where to stop counting.

We are blessed with two mails a week, although in the winter the P. E. I. mail passes Boots, Shoes, Rubbers, our door every day, and sometimes our own mail is so large we need two bags to carry it. Qur merchants complain a good bit about this of mail service, so we have had the promise of a third mail for nearly three years.

READY-MADE CLOTHING We are getting quite used to waiting. We are, as I stated before, a quiet people, and patient, too, so once a year we renew our request. and once a year have the promise renewed, and that keeps us from getting mad.
