Poetry. Horse Trade. He seemed innocent, childlike, confiding,

That youth who swapped horses with me; But I've known of such mild manners hiding Duplicity frightful to see. And a horse trade's a horse trade. Each party Is always supposed to intend To be crooked. I therefore was hearty

And he lied like the mischief, I knew it, About his brown, five-year-old mare; Why, I wondered, sir, how he could do it

In trying to keep up my end.

With such a frank, innocent air! For my own part, I make no pretension That all that I told him was true; What is more, I neglected to mention

Some outs my horse had that I knew. But a horse trade's a horse trade, remember The day is supposed to be cold As the coldest we get in December,

For him who turns out to be sold.

Well, we traded, and would you believe me? I've found out by driving that mare That the youth didn't try to deceive me, But told the thing honest and square.

THE IMPERIAL CONFEDERATION CONFER -ENCE. - Toronto, Nov. 19 .- The Globe has November 18th: The Right Hon. Sir John Macdonald, G. C. B., was present at the sesion of the Imperaial Confederation Conference, which was reopened by adjournment to day. The object of the meeting was to further discuss the practibility of a scheme of federation of Britain and her colonies, which was broached and partly debated at the meeting held here a few weeks ago. The attendnce to-day was as on the former occasion large and influential, comprising representatives of nearly all the colonists and a large number of Liberal and Conservative peers and commoners. The Right Hon. W. E. Forster spoke in favor of a motion declaring it expedient to establish an imperial federation league. The objects of the league were defined to be the knitting together of the various parts of the Empire for defence and for the furtherance of mutual interests, but guarantee all existing rights over local affairs to each community. Sir John Macionald agreed heartily with all the remarks and arguments used by the Right Hon. Mr. Forster in support of the movement, and he himself supported it with all his strength. He testified to the loyalty of the Canadian Dominion to the British connection, and enlarged upon the benefits the Dominion had gained through the existence of that connection. This important movement toward federation, he said, threw upon the colonial governments the responsibility of considering the whole question. Mr. Forster's motion was, after spirited discussion, adopted.

laborers bruised his leg. Owing to the bad state of his blood, an ugly scrofulous swelling or lump appeared on the injured limb. Horrible itching of the skin, with burning and darting pains through the lump, made life almost intolerable. The leg became enormously enlarged, and running ulcers formed, discharging great quantities of extremely offensive matter. No treatment was of any avail until the man, by Mr. LELAND's direction, was supplied with AYER'S SARSAPA-RILLA, which allayed the pain and irritation, healed the sores, removed the swelling, and completely restored the limb to use.

Aver's Sarsaparilla for Rheumatism, with entire success; and, after careful observation, declares that, in his belief, there is no medicine in the world equal to it for the cure of Liver Disorders, Gout, the effects of high living, Salt Rheum, Sores, Eruptions, and all the various forms of blood diseases. We have Mr. LELAND's permission to invite all who may desire further evidence in regard to the extraordinary curative powers of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA to see him personally either at his mammoth Ocean Hotel, Long Branch, or at the popular Leland Hotel,
