Children and teachers all seemed to be glad to get back their Sunday School pleasant and successful.

Last week I mentioned the subject of S. S. finance, proposing to refer to it again. The position new taken by many of the ablest S, S. workers is that, as the S. S. belongs to the church, and is in fact a part of the church and controlled by it, the same as the prayer meeting and the cheir, the ex-for any other church work. They centend that the children should not be made to feel that the school is an independent institution outside of the church, but a part of it, and that they (the children) are not buying what they get of the Gospel; that it is not a matter of barter, so much gospel (lesson leaves, papers, instruction, &c.) for penses of the prayer and other meetings of
