THE END OF THE WORLD .- According to a prophecy by Nostradamus, interpreted by the Univers Illustre:—

When George his God will crucify, That Mark may then him vivify, And John, the saint, him deify, The world's end will men terrify. The cense is not at first eight clear; be oracles were at all times obscure. However, with a slight insight of prophetic style and a little attention a satisfactory interpretation of these lines may be obtained :

When George his God will crucify should be interpreted thus: When Good Friday falls on St. George's day, that is to say on the 23rd of April: That Mark may then him vivily means: When Easter Sunday, devoted to the celebration of the resurrection of Our Lord, falls on St. Mark's Day, that is to say on the 26th

And John the saint him deify signifies : -When Corpus Christi Day, on which the hest is carried in procession through the streets, falls on St. John the Baptist's Day, that is to say on the 24th of June, when bout 2 700 a week.
