Who is Perry Davis?

About forty years ago when PERRY DAVIS, of Providence, R. I., in the United States, first introduced to the world his now universally known Pain-Killer, he was a poor man without influence, a cripple and an invalid. He studied the effect of certain drugs upon the human system, and experimented in their uses until he had compounded a medicine capable of curing his own maladies. When restored to health he offered the preparation to his fellow sufferers, until now there is not a country on earth which does not buy it. It is eminently a

MOUNT POPOCATAPETL

ASCENSION OF THE GREAT VOLCANO - THE SHORTEST TIME ON RECORD. During the last year and a balf the ascent of Mount Popocatapetl has become a popular diversion. On Wednesday the 14th of November the quickest known escent (according to the statement of our chief guide) of this celebrated mountain was made by a party of gentlemen, including Dr. T. Ormsbee, of Chicago, Prof. Silas H. Jenkins, of New Orleans and the writer. Having made up our minds to attempt the ascent, we made arrangements, providing ourselves with blankets, goggles, veils, gloves, woolen socks, sandals, &c. We left Mexico at 8 a. m. on the Morelos R. R. and ran in a south easterly direction through a marshy region for about 20 miles, where the aspect of the country suddenly changes to a hilly appear-ance with charming vales running in all directions. We continue in this for about 23 miles, when we suddenly find ourselves in a beautiful valley, and a few minutes after we hear "Amecameca" from the brakeman and we realize that we are at our destination by rail, and that our hardships must begin. more especially after his pocket. We engaged him as our chief guide at $3.00 per

All preparations being consumated, we mounted face to face with an immense chasm which must be crossed, but courage is necessary as the side is almost perpendicular, and one false step of our horses would send us into eternity; but the noble animals have been over the route a great many times and de not hesitate in the descent, and we are soon in the bottom of the deep, dark ravine. But thoroughly armed and mounted on able horses, who commanded us to halt. We did so, and our leader and they held a consulta tion of about 20 minutes, in which our guide declared that we had no money. Whether it was this assertion or the fear of attacking but at all events they rode away about their business, and we went on our way rejoicing at our escape. We are gatting very but still are only about balf way, and must toil on slower and slower. We are now in dark and much more difficult to proceed, but on, on we go, all at once we turn into an immense valley directly back on the way which we have come and ride on for half an hour, hours until we are about discouraged, but in a moment more we see a bright light and knew it to be the ranch, our camping ground, but wonder who could have built the fires, as no persons live there, but our minds were soon satisfied on that point when hundred Indians who were camping there. were hostile or peaceable. I can tell you fear nothing, as no harm should come to us, but I can well assure you that was a night of dread to ue, but we were there and had to make the best of it as there was no chance to
