Some days before the date fixed for the execution Dr. Rolf started to ride to Toronto and endeavor to secure a reprieve from the Governor. while the clergyman undertook to delay the execution as long he could. The hour for the hanging arrived, and the Dr. had not returned. The prisoner was placed in position and prepared for the drop, and then the clergyman was permitted to begin the final prayers and then, to quote the statement in

Then Rev. Ryerson got down on his knees and egan the longest and most remarkable prayer on record. His voice was low purposely, for he wished to husband his vecal strength.
