Then we have full-page illustrations of Dominion Square, Montreal, showing the Palace from another point of view, the Windsor Hotel and other fine buildings, and skating, tobogganing and curling scenes, all beautifully done; the whole number of finely executed pictures, being not less than twenty-five. This is not all that the Carnival Number contains, since it includes the most complete, reliable and graphic description of the Carnival games, scenes, balls, etc, that was given to the public by any Canadian newspaper. This description makes twenty-two pages, or one hundred col-umns each eighteen inches in length, and is a model of successful newspaper reporting, covering every event and incident of importance which transpired during Carnival week. Mr. James H. Robinson, St. John, N. B.

Dear Sir, —By, I may say, almost an accident, early this spring, being confined to my room for nearly three months, and during this time I was under the combined care of three of the most eminent physicians of Charlottetown and by them and my friends given up as beyond all power to help me. Dr. Baxter, of Moncton, having occasion to call upon me on business, very naturally observed my state of health, and after fully describing my trouble, which by the doctors attending me was pronounced Dyspepsia or Indigestion, in fact I was so bad I could only eat brown bread, and that after being made at least three days, while tea, coffee or milk I dare not touch, and a slice of toast would invariably prome the natural attention.
