AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a triffing or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured. "In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PEC-TORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the Pectoral a perma-nent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me. HORACE FAIRBROTHER."

Croup. - A Mother's Tribute. "While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,

MRS. EMMA GEDNEY." 159 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882. "I have used AVER'S CHERRY PECTORAL n my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effectual remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried.

Select Tale.

Miss Adeline Steinway, variously called "Lona." by her lady friends, "Addie by herself and "Ad" by her brother, had marshalled her forces in the hall and stood waiting in brown travelling dress, for the arrival of the stage-coach. Said forces consisted of two trunks, one carher brother, Lester, and her cousin, Mr. St. John Walraven. Her trunks and her cousin were to accompany her; her mamma and her brother only to see her

For Adeline had just concluded to accept her aunt's oft-repeated invitation to visit Willowbrook. On receiving the letter of acceptance, Aunt Walraven promptly despatched St. John (her stepto escort her thither. We don't know who the doctor is referred to in the following clipping, but we do think there is a ring of common sense about his conclusions. Probably a good per centage o the dyspepsia that troubles people is the resuls of fancy and abstinence from good hearty food combined :-

A distinguished American doctor says that people who take the greatest care of their stomachs are sure to have dyspepsia. He maintains that if a man will eat when he is hungry and eat any food that tempts his appetite he may have the gout, but will surely escape dyspepsia. This will turn the pat theories of professional dietists topsy-turvy.
