CONCENTRATOR'S Consolidation: he by Almont; he by Alexander's Abdallah; he by Rysdyck's Hambletonian; dam of Concentration, Belle Mambrino; she by Harry Mambrino, he by Mambrino Chief; dam Kate Crowder by Tom Crowder, 2nd dam by Hill Junior [sire of dams of Jay-Eye-See and Maud S.]

Leo took 2nd prize at Eastern Fair, held at Bangor, September, 1884; he competed with a large number of others some of which were purchased in Kentucky; he bids fair to be a very fast horse. Leo's breeding puts him to the front as one of the best bred horses in the Dominion, as he is several times inbred, both on sire and dam's side, to the celebrated horse Diomed, whose blood flows through the veins of nearly all the fast horses of America, such as Jay-Eye-See, Maud S, Billy Boice, Smuggler, and scores of others Possessing as he does so much of the Thoroughbred, he is just what is wanted to cross with our cold blooded mares.

Leo will stand during the Season of 1885, commencing May 1st, at his OWNER'S STABLE.

TERMS:—$10.00 to insure; $3.00 to be paid at time of first service, balance after the mares prove with foal.

A Dangerous Case.

ROCHESTER, June 1, 1882. "Ten Years ago I was attacked with the most Intense and deathly pains in my back and —Kidneys.

"Extending to the end of my toes and to my brain!

"Which made me delirious!

"From agony.

"It took three men to hold me on my bed at times!

"The Doctors tried in vain to relieve me, but to no purpose.

Morphine and other opiates!

"Had no effect!

"After two months I was given up to die!

"When my wife heard a neighbor tell what Hop Bitters had done for her; she at once got and gave me some. The first dose eased my brain and seemed to go hunting through my system for the pain.

The second dose eased me so much that I slept two hours, something I had not done for two months. Before I had used five bottles, I was well and at work as hard as any man could, for over three weeks; but I worked too hard for my strength, and taking a hard cold, I was taken with the most acute and painful rheumatism all through my system that ever was known.

"I called the doctors again and after several weeks they left me a cripple on crutches for life, as they said. I met a friend and told him my case, and he said Hop Bitters had cured him and would cure me. I poohed at him, but he was so earnest I was induced to use them again.

In less than four weeks I threw away my crutches and went to work lightly and kept on using the bitters for five weeks, until I became as well as any man living, and have been so for six years since.

It has also cured my wife, who had been sick for years; and has kept her and my children well and healthy with from two to three bottles per year. There is no need to be sick at all if these bitters are used. J. J. BERK, Ex-Supervisor.

"That poor invalid wife.

"Sister!

"Mother!

"Or daughter!

"Can be made the picture of health!

"With a few bottles of Hop Bitters!

"Will you let them suffer?"

☞ None genuine without a bunch of green Hops on the white label. Shun all the vile, poisonous stuff with "Hop" or "Hops" in their name.

Miscellaneous.

"I hope you are not cutting a friend," said a neighbor to a farmer who was scratching the back of a pet pig with a stick. Bristling up with indignation, the farmer replied, "No, sir; I'm only scraping an acquaintance!"

Easily Caught.

It is very easy to catch cold, but not so easy to cure it unless you use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, the best remedy for all throat, bronchial and lung troubles, coughs, colds and consumptive tendencies

TIT FOR TAT.—At a hotel a short time since, a girl enquired of a gentleman at the table if his cup was out. 'No' said he, 'but my coffee is!' The poor girl was considerably confused, but determined to pay him in his own coin. While at dinner the stage drove up, and several coming in the gentleman asked, 'Does the stage dine here?' 'No, Sir!' exclaimed the girl, in a sarcastic tone; 'but the passengers do!'

Drive it Away.

Poor Charlie sighed and said, "my favourite flower is the forget-me-not," And mine," she said 'is mari-gold and then poor Charlie knew the game was up.

We would advise all who are in any way troubled with Indigestion, General Debility, or Loss of Appetite, to give Estey's Iron and Quinine Tonic a trial,—we have no hesitation in stating that it is a reliable preparation. All Druggists sell it.

"You speak," said a fond mother, "about people having strength of mind, but when it comes to strength of don't mind, my son William surpasses everybody I ever knew."

A Household Perfume. Every family able to appreciate and enjoy the pleasure afforded by a really healthful and delicious perfume, should supply themselves with the genuine MURRAY & LANMAN'S FLORIDA WATER. It is the most delightful and most lasting of all fragrant Waters.

HEROIC REMEDY.—"I suppose I shall be an old maid all my life," sighed a young woman of 25. "That's a grievous complaint," responded an old bachelor. "Very" again sighed the maiden. "Do you want to cure it?" "Of course I do." "Take me for a husband?" "Do you mean it?" "Certainly," "Well, desperate cases require desperate remedies and I guess I'll try you." They fell upon each other's necks.

☞ In this present age, when the life battle is so fiercely fought, and when upon even the strongest the tug and stress of it tell so heavily, how necessary it becomes for us to provide for the keeping up of our reserve stock of mental and physical stamina by the use of such a nervous tonic and vitalizing agent as "Robinson's Phosphorized Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Lacto-Phosphate of Lime."

Its gently stimulating and nutritive-tonic properties supply the materials and assist nature in her efforts to keep up with the exhaustive demands upon her reserves.

Prepared only by HANINGTON BROS, Chemists, St. John, N. B., and for sale by Druggists generally.

Price $1 00 per bottle, or six bottles for $5 00

"Why don't you come in out of the rain" said a good natured dominie to a ragged Irishman. "Shure, it's av no consequince, yer riverence," returned Pat: "me clothes is so full of holes they won't howld wather.
