It is generally admitted that there cannot be anything more exquisitely delicate or perfuming the handkerchief than MURRAY & LANMAN'S FLORIDA WATER; but its great and listinctive property is its adaptability to the uses of the bath. It is the only perfume that we know of especially and particularly suited to use in this way. The power it has of impartng to the waters of the bath great soothing, refreshing, and invigorating effects, is peculiar

> A Malarial Neighborhood. People so unfortunate as to reside in a malarial region should cleanse and thoroughly tone up the system with Burdock Blood Bitters, that promptly acts upon the Stomach, Bowels, Liver and Kidneys, thus preventing Ague and all Bilious Complaints. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

"Curious world this," said an old man to a fellow traveller on a cir. "Verv, was the laconic reply. "And it strange," continued the venerable philosopher, "very strange that so few of us get out of it alive."

CONSUMPTION. From H B Smith, Esq., a prominent under date June 8th, 1877:-Dear Sir,-I have suffered for some years past with Cough from Affection of the Lungs, Spit-ting of Blood, Weakness of the Chest, and Want of Appetite, and have tried many so called remedies, but without any effect whatever until 1 Case White and Colored Ham- I commenced using Robinson's Phosphorized EMULSION. I have now taken eight bottles, and find this quite equal to what it is represented to be, for it has WORKED LIKE A CHARM, and I can cordially recommend it to all who are affected as I have been, as I feel it is going to make a perfect cure of me. I still continue it, and I must say I never took anything equal to it. If you wish to make any use of this for the benefit of yourself and the world at large you can do so, for I think it should be known.
