SOMEBODY. Somebody crawls into mamma's bed Just at the break of day, Snuggles up close and whispers loud "Somebody's come to stay."

Somebody rushes through the house, Never once shuts a door; Scatters her playthings all around Over the nursery floor.

Climbs on the fence and tears her clothes-Never a bit cares she-Swings on the gate and makes mud pies-Who can somebody be? Somebody looks with roguish eyes

Up through her tangled hair; Somebody's me," she says, "but then Somebody doesn't care.' -Every Other Saturday.
