-There was a man in our town, and he was wonderous wise, for when he marked his prices down he then did dvertise. And when he saw his trade increase, with all his might and main, he marked still lower every price, and advertised again. And when he advertised again, his rivals stamped and swore, SAUNDERS BROS., CHRISTMAS CARDS, to see folks rush with might and main, to patronize the store. And while they sat in solitude, and saw his custom bring, that man behind the counter stood and The Finest and Lowest Stock ever raked the shekels in. And when he raked opened in the Town of Woodstock. the shekels in, and saw his fortune raising, he took a goodly lot of "tin" and kept on advertising. Each day a genenerous sum he'd seek, and demonstrate full plain, the more one pays for printer's ink, the greater is his gain .-
