Thanks,

Last week we were unable to fill all the orders received for the SENTINEL. We add a large number to our circulation this issue. We tender thanks to the very many who during the past few weeks have added their names to our subscription list.

Fruit Exhibit.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Lugrin has met with fine success in his attempt to secure au exhibit of fruit to send forward to the Colonial Exhibition. The response has been generous and general, and remarkably fine specimens of our fruit and vegetables will regale the eyes of visitors to the exhibition. A. Taylor, Woodstock, N. B., blk. g.

Light Shineth in Darkness.

It is a great consolation to know, these dismal nights, when one is plodding his way home through the dark, at the risk of life and limb, that the contract for the placing of the electric light has been executed, and that the streets are to be lighted on or before the first of November. The committee have not only thus carried out the instructions of the Council with remarkable promptness, but they have as well, we learn, carefully guard ed the interests of the Town, by making it a condition of the contract that the lights are to be run thirty days on trial, before being sary of the establishment of Woodstock Lodge St. John, opening on the 9th inst., at 2 p. m. taken off the contractors hands. We believe of Good Templars. The room was soon comthe arrangement will give satisfaction to a very large majority of our rate payers.
