McAdam.

A gles club from Portland, St. John, gave a very pleasant entertainment, to a large audience, at McAdam, the other evening. This was not one of the complimentary series, used in the school house at religious services. Quite a bandsome sam was realized, as by the generosity of the glee club, of Mr. Cram, Mr. Haggerty and Mr. Ross, there was no expense attending the entertainment.

The Herald on the Election.

The Montreal Herald, Mr. Mitchell's paper, says of the Quebec elections : -Some iron bound partiesns pretend that th Provincial government have not been defeated. We wonder what they would call defeat? How much more defeating do they think their govlast session with a majority in the Assembly of thirty-five. Where is that majority to lay? All call this if it is not defeat? Perhaps, after all, these partisans want us to understand that these lorses are really victories; so the greater the decided minority. There have been elected to the House at least thirty six men who opposed there are only sixty-five seats in the full House, it follows that the government are in a minority of seven. What is the use of talking about the government not being defeated?

Not Encouraging.

Ploughing Match. The weather on Wednesday of igst week was propitious for the ploughing match which took place that day, on the grounds of John Simpson, East Glassville, under the auspices of the Aberdeen Agricultural Society. There were 10 competitors, 7 men and 3 boys, and the competition was so keen that it was with difficulty, it is said, that the Judges could form an opinion. After the match was over, the company were entertained at a choice dinner by Mrs. Simpson. The prize winners, men, were 1st Evan McLotosh, 21 William H. Aitken, 3d James Clark, 4th William Lyone.
