The following are the business' houses of this lose and it is no disparagement of his use fulness if he has teachers as well qualified in their capacity as he is. He should have the qualification of a good teacher, the faculty of impart, to impress, to interest and thus keep up the life of the school till its close, and not drag it out to a tiresome length. He should be patient, regular in his stendance and habits, energetic, punctual; ready at the time or moment of opening to greet visitors or direct scholars. He should acquire a general knowledge of each lesson; and in all be directed by the Holy Spirit. His aim should be to bring souls to Christ. Not merely to crowd the mind with knowledge but to feed it with such food as would beget power.

Mrs. Richard Alexander followed with a paper on the general work and indicences of the Sunday school, which sho presented as an institution extensive in its operations, wide in its sims and powerfol in its indience. AYER'S Hair Vigor has given me perfect satisfaction. I was nearly bald for six years, during which time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Indeed, what little hair I had was growing thinner, until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used two bottles of the Vigor, and my head is now well covered with a new growth of hair.

—Judson B. Chapel, Peabody, Mass.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor.  My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal.— Mary N. Hammond, Stillwater, Minn.

VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor.  A disease of the scalp caused my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do me any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff. — Mrs. E. R. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.
