To the Editor of the Carleton Sentinel As the columns of your worthy paper sppear open for the benefit of the public, allow me space to allude to the interesting essay on the "Care of Cattle," read by Mr. Fletcher before the Carleton County Agricultural Society and published in the Sentines. The question is one of vital importance, and of sufficient magnitude to claim the attention of all, especially farmers, who have the power to aid in the work. Although conscious of inability to treat the subject properly, still in the absence of criticism by those more competent, I make bold the attempt, realizing that unless there be a beginning there will be no progression. My frequent digressions which will be apparent, are to induce discussion on the important questions. I am confident there is no surer way of developing the intellect than by practicing composition for publication. Mr. Fletcher in his introduction of the subject shows that the total realized Local & Foreign Items. from the production of the cattle industries of the United States, in 1880, was nearly $750,000,000; also from the census of Canada, in 1881, the productions from the same Mr. George Russell, of Aurora, Ontario, says source were fully $50,000,000. A Bloody Sacrifice. A terrible murder and suicide occurred in Why do so many limp and hobble about on Lincoln County, West Va., on the night of the 17th. Mrs. Margaret Donnan, a widow, became insane from religious fanatioism, and three children to satisfy the divine wrath. Early in the evening she threw herself upon nia with the sanction of the Knights of her knees and spent several hours in wild Labor, against strawberries picked by Chinese ravings. She then arose and arming herself with a large, sharp carving knife, made her way to the room occupied by her three daughtere, aged 12, 10 and 8 years. The woman cut the throat of each child, and plunged the recking blade deep into her own heart. The bodies were discovered Tuesday by neighbors
