CARLETON CO. S. S. CONVENTION.

The eleventh annual session of the Carleton County Sabbath School Convention, convened in the Methodist Church, Woodstock, at 2 p. m., Tuesday. The first half hour was devoted to prayer and praise, the service being led by Rev. Mr. Campbell. At 2.30 the President, Chas. King, took the chair and, after a hymn had been sung, in a few felicitous words of welcome to the delegates, declared the Convention open. The year were all in their places, and the audience was larger than at any previous opening session of the same body.

The President appointed G. H. Holyoke, J. T. Fletcher and George W. Hovey a credential committee, who reported at sundry times during the sessions. Total number of delegates present 148.

The following committee, to report at to-morrow morning's session, was appointed: S. P. Parsons, G. H. Holyoke, S. S. Wiggins and A. J. C. Goss.

The Secretary read his report as follows:—

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

WOODSTOCK, AUG. 17, 1886.

To the President and Delegates:

The tenth year of our Convention work has just closed, and the pleasure and satisfaction it is with gratitude to God that we note the progress which He has blessed our labors. It is a pleasure to be able to say that we have a common interest, and in which I believe we all feel a common fellowship. Every member in this assembly of Sabbath school work has an interest in its progress. Nor is it confined to one assembly alone, it is a common interest to all the assemblies. Although we have a tabulated report, yet I believe that the work that has been accomplished in the past year has been more measured by local boundaries; it has its measure in the formation of Christian character and in the stature of the Christian life.

About the middle of June I sent out to each of our member churches a copy of the report of his school, and although I received a very ready response from the majority of Superintendents, yet a few have not yet responded. In the latter cases I had to use the statistics of last year, the same being denoted by a "y." In the case of the late response, to be returned and the very late date at which others were received, has made it impossible for me to give the statistical report of this year's parts.

The number of schools reported is 35, but many were reported as being closed, are not open now, and in other places new schools have been opened. In Alderbrook one school was closed, and another opened in West Glasville, and one opened in East Knoxville; all the reports from the parish are of a cheering character, and the whole annual sessions, and Christian progress is visible in their movements.

At the meeting of Brighton one school, that at East Cold Stream, did not revive with the return of Spring; the laborers in that parish are disappointed and are unable to work. The Convention of this parish appears to be reviving, and though they are doing a good work, yet we hope to see better results.

The reports from Kent are very meagre. Their Parish Convention has been divided, and the Executive Committee is now giving all the aid in their power to this parish.

The reports from Haverhill and Litchfield have been sent in circulars and letters to the Superintendents of the Parish. I have failed to receive the cheerful response that is desired, and more frequent visits from members of the executive would be a help in this regard. We are making up our report of this parish chiefly from last year's statistics.

At Northampton is alive in the work. A school was organized in the lower part of the parish last spring, and it is accomplished. In the parish of Newburgh and New Lower Newburgh have both had to struggle through local troubles, but they are now reviving.

All the schools in Richmond have been strongly maintained except that at Union Corner. Besides the annual sessions, the churches are all in the attendance in the parish, but the declension in members is not equally noticeable in all the churches.

The parish of Northampton continues to be a very interesting institution, notwithstanding the shock sustained by the death of its pastor, Mr. May.

All the schools in Simonds are well maintained. They had a Parish Convention organized last year.

At Northampton the parish convention was held at the school house of Wakefield the schools at Hartford and Rosedale have remained dormant this summer, which causes a considerable decrease in the statistics. Work commenced early in the spring, and they are filled with earnest workers.

At Northampton school, that at Avonville, formerly returned in Wakefield list, is dormant; one has been organized at Lower Northampton, but I have been unable to visit it, and all the others are well reported.

Woodstock reports an increase in attendance, but I have been unable to visit it last year. The schools at Holston Road and Bedell settlement have amalgamated in the last annual report, and a school has been opened in Springfield.

Had all the reports been received in the summer would be more marked; but I would not call particular attention to one cause of difference in annual reports, and that is the neglect of schools to keep a weekly record, and in consequence leaving to report the report at the end of the year. Although none schools are now keeping weekly records, I have been acquainted with school doing so. Another cause of declension in some cases and lack of greater progress in others, is the fact that some have visitation, only seven out of ninety-six reports for having adopted this plan. Only six schools out of thirty-five have visitation, only seven out of ninety-six reports for having adopted this plan. Only six schools out of thirty-five have visitation, only seven out of ninety-six reports for having adopted this plan.

I resolved when appointed to this work a year ago to visit all the schools I could and to get acquainted with the work in every part of the county. Thus far I have been able only to visit about forty of the schools, but I have been deeply impressed with the advantage of those visitations, and would impress upon both county and parish Superintendents the importance of this project. I have every where met with nothing but Christian kindness and courtesy and have greatly enjoyed the associations.

More attention should be given to the selection of lesson helps and libraries.

For the purpose of the report, which I cannot place in a statistical report, that is an apparent settled purpose by an increase in the number of schools reported in the Sunday school work. Many fathers and mothers are finding their way into the Sunday school, and the number of children before the young men and young women conclude that they had not grown to old age without the Christian influence in the situation.

Hoping that the coming year may be fruitful of continued progress, I commend to God the work of all the churches.

GEO. L. HOLYOKE.

On motion, report received and placed on file.

The Secretary's statistical report submitted will be found at the head of these columns. It is a great pleasure to be able to say that the receipts during the year, $62.74; expenditures, $81.50; balance due Secretary-Treasurer, $28.25. This report was referred to a committee consisting of Rev. Mr. C. H. Fletcher, J. T. G. Carr and A. H. Harn.

The hymn, "It is good to be here," Mrs. Sles at the organ, was now sung when the President presented the following report:—

Z. Nason, V. P. of Northampton, gave an interesting report of the condition of schools in that parish, and the work was organized at Lower Northampton, and the other schools, on the whole, are well established.

H. H. Harn, V. P. of Richmond, reported that he had furnished the schools of his parish with copies of the temperance pledge, but they had failed to accept it. He had visited all the schools in his parish, and believed that his parish stood higher than ever in regard to the temperance cause.

Connelly, V. P., Wakefield, reported interest good, but the interest is shown more on the part of the young than in the adults. In the absence of superintendents, he had called upon the churches to do the work. On the whole the Sabbath School interest is not so lively in this Parish as could be desired.

Bro. King that he had visited 12 out of the 13 schools in the Parish. The whole Parish thoroughly alive in the interest of the work. He was a grand Parish Superintendent, good working order, and the work is progressing.

The nominating committee reported as follows, which was considered section by section
and adopted:
NOMINATING COMMITTEE'S REPORT.
President, George W. Holvey, Esq.; Secretary,
Treasury, George H. Holvey; Assistant Secretary, T. J. T. G. Carr; Treasurer, J. B. Briggs; Brighton, N. R. Brown; Recd. Sec'y, J. Row-
ner; Northampton, J. Nason; Fed. Sec'y, J. Eastman; Middlebury, Samuel T. Brooks; Winockfield, J. W. Connelly; Woodstock, Ira Miller;
Windsor, Colin King; Woodstock, S. Parsons;
The Middlebury School Convention, S. Parson; G. L. Holvey, Secretary.
Delegates to Provincial Convention.—S. R.
Briggs, J. W. Connelly, J. W. Carr.
James Watts and S. J. Parsons were elected delegates to the Aroostook County Convention.
The newly elected officers now took their respective positions. The retiring President in a few happy remarks congratulated President Holvey on his election, and the Convention and the Convention in having elected a worthy a chief officer.
Bro. Holvey returned thanks for the unexpected honor. He fully realized the responsibilities of the important position to which he had been elevated and could only praise to God for the discharge thereof in very best efforts.
W. E. Thistle briefly reported his self-at Glaisville as being in a prosperous condition.
On motion, the programme was not changed, and Rev. T. J. Deinstadt proceeded to read a most admirably prepared paper on the subject of "The Sabbath School," interestingly illustrating the following points:
1st.—The Bible is an old book.
2d.—The Bible is a book of promises.
3d.—It is the great treasure house of wisdom
and of knowledge.
4th.—It is the great food depositary of the soul.
5th.—It is the source of power.
The doxology was sung and benediction pronounced by Rev. J. Deinstadt of Carleton.
WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.
The convention assembled at 2:00 p. m.
and approved by Rev. McKay. Minutes read and prayer by the text, twenty seven children present. The Rev. J. Deinstadt, who had come up in the forenoon train and picnicked on Scott's Hill, entered the church and was received.
Convention proceeded to select place for next meeting, when, on motion, it was decided to hold the next annual meeting at the residence of T. J. Deinstadt, Windsor.
Mrs S. E. Briggs now, in a very effective and interesting manner, proceeded to teach the Lesson for August 15th, to the Boston School, and the Convention, who had sent words of commendation addressed to the children by Rev. G. W. Christie.
The secretary of the Convention, S. R. Briggs,
the Provincial Convention, soliciting
a subscription to its funds.
Convention adjourned after benediction by Rev. G. W. Christie.
WEDNESDAY EVENING.
Convention opened at 7:30. Prayer by Rev. I. Holvey. Minutes read and approved.
The Secretary was granted permission to amend his statement report, by the addition of the record since that document was submitted.
The President appointed the following
Executive Committee:—S. R. Briggs, J. B. Briggs, Fletcher, James Watts, J. T. G. Carr, Robert
Hannah and W. T. Kerr.
The subject "Teacher's Influence," was now taken up. The Convention, who were one of the most devoted addresses ever delivered before the Convention. His leading ideas were, first, that all are exciting an influence, and secondly, that we should many when they learn how much they have done in the primary formation of lives.
The Convention, who were one of the most Teachers who train the mind of a mighty influence: Sabbath School teachers who train the child and mould his character exercise the greatest influence on the soul.
measured. The word they teach has force.
They stand as interpreters of God, and His goodness to the child in its receptive and active, voluntary, seen in teaching and in all we try to do. The other involuntary, unconscious, yet master. The deep
of the heart, the heart, the heart, the heart, ever expresses. This influence is ever growing out from every teacher and teaching influence.
Secondly, This influence has its source in our nature: it is our character not our reputation. It is the aggregate result of our life.
Third.—This influence is supreme in forming the scholastic life and character. What we are tells for more than words, what we teach of the heart of the heart of the heart of the this unconscious influence. When we have Christ in our hearts then we can show Him
to the world.
S. J. Parsons further briefly but practically discussed the question.
Rev. R. McKay in an admirable address discussed the question of "Why should business men be interested in the success of the Sabbath School, and how best may they promote its welfare." The speaker first explained the importance of the Sabbath School here to signify those who were engaged in trade. Business men, as such, are interested in the success of the Sabbath School, and honesty of others. The object of Sabbath School teaching was to train the young in honesty. The remedy for the increasing increase of crime was to be found in the success with the gospel of Christ. Business men could promote the success of Sabbath Schools
by their money; by giving themselves to the work of the Sabbath School, and by selves active workers in the school; for this work they were the most suitable men.
The discussion was then subjected to singing, from the choir, Mrs. J. T. G. Carr at the organ, was rendered.
The question box was opened and the questions answered by G. L. Holvey and J. B. Briggs.
Mr. Christie.
Votes of thanks were now passed to the citizens of Woodstock for their hospitality, to the citizens of the town of Windsor for their buildings; to the visitors from Aroostook for their assistance; to the choir for its services; to the citizens of the railway company for the reduction of fares.
The doxology was now sung; the benediction pronounced by Rev. M. Dill, and the Convention closed.

DIED.

At Woodstock, on Tuesday morning, the 17th August, Eliza A., aged 37 years, wife of J. R. Murphy, Horriestor-Lane, and second daughter of Deacon F. E. Gouf, formerly of Jacksonville, At Victoria Corner, Carleton Co., Aug. 14th, 1886, of cancer. Annie M., beloved wife of George H. Boyer, aged 45 years and 8 months. Her end was peace.

In Tennessee, July 20, of diphtheria, Archie L. Elliott, aged 14 yrs 1 mos.; the 25th, Archie L. Elliott 5 yrs. 2 mos., the children of Harding and Millie Elliott.

From Cassin and Archie we loved them dearly.
But the Favour lost them more;
And He came and bore them gently,
Safe behind the shining shore.

Their graves bright Heavenly lovers,
Gems of beauty on their brows;
Shielded from life's storms and sorrow,
Sister and Brother ever true.

At the residence of her grandmother, Coldstream, on the 15th inst., of consumption, Victoria Darlock, in the 21st year of her age. Her parents were deceased.

On the 15th inst., at Fairville, Annie E. L. aged two months and two days, child of Rev. Thomas and Annie E. Marshall.

On the 31st of August, Ella, beloved wife of Desnoes Gray, in the 24th year of her age, died. She had been suffering with rheumatism for several years. Her death was sudden, hopeful in death. Gerson by Rev. T. Todd. [Messengers and Undertakers.]

With us her name shall live
Through long, succeeding years, Embalmed with all our hearts can give—
Our praises and our tears.

At Peel, Aug. 13th, Mrs. Bessie Phillips, aged 75 years, 6 months. She was a good woman, a faithful, devoted Christian and her husband, James Phillips, left a sorrowing household, the companion of her youth, and his children to mourn the loss of a kind, loving mother. The funeral services for this lady at her funeral, the services being conducted by Rev. J. W. S. Young.

Threshers

Buy the Best!

The Grey Thresher.

Manufactured by M. MOODY & SONS, of Ter-rbonne, Quebec, is pretty well known to the Farmers of Carleton and Victoria Counties.—
Quite a number were sold in the fall of 1885
which have given almost universal satisfaction
some of them having averaged more than 20,000 bushels since that time. In the fall of 1885 we again took the agency for them. In the meantime they had been fitted with a greatly improved style of Lox Iron as well as some minor improvements. All the MacIntosh sold last year gave the most unbounded satisfaction, and we too are justified in saying that the MOODY GREY THRISHER will run 1 1/2 liter, thresh faster, clean better, wear longer, cost less for repairs, and waste less grain than any other machine in the market.

We are daily expecting a shipment of these machines, which will be sold on favorable terms
either at my Warehouse, Main Street, Woodstock
or by my various Agents throughout the country.
