DURING the last four months the United States shipped to Europe 52,000,482 bushels of wheat, being double the quantity shipped in the same period last year.

JUDGE GEORGE L. RUFFIN, the first and only colored judge ever appointed to the "bench" in Massachusetts, died last week at his residence, Charlestown, Mass.

THE Dominion government have, it appears, conceded to the demands of St. John, in so far as to substitute St. John for Portland, in its tenders for winter mail service.

THE newspapers of the United States generally unite in paying highest tribute in the way of reference to the late ex President Arthur. And his obsequies were given national honors.

MR. KING, the present post master of St. John, has been appointed Inspector of post offices in place of Hon. John McMillan, deceased, and Edward Willis, Esq., has been appointed to succeed Mr. King as post master of St. John.

MARY, a little daughter of Mr. Haliburton, of the bank of Nova Scotia, fell backwards into a vessel of boiling water, which was being prepared for a bath, on Saturday evening, and was seriously scalded. Drs. Connell and Colter were called and immediate means resorted to to relieve the sufferer, who, fortunately, is recovering.

ON the evening of the 13th, the members of Waterville Division, S. of T., gave a concert in Tilley's Hall, Waterville, which, owing to the weather was not largely attended. The programme was excellent and was finely rendered. By request, the committee have decided to repeat the concert with some changes and additions, on Saturday evening, 27th inst.

WE are in receipt of a copy of The Baptist Year Book, of the Maritime Provinces of the Dominion, for 1886. It contains much interesting information relative to the denomination, showing that it is in a progressive condition. Within the boundaries mentioned there are 357 churches, with a membership of 43,463; number of baptisms during the year, 2508.

"THE Farmer's Poultry Raising Guide" is the title of a new book on poultry raising for profit, published by I. S. Johnson & Co., 22 Custom St. Boston. It contains information in regard to making hens lay; to fatten poultry; to dress poultry; how to build hen houses and yards, &c. It is extensively illustrated. Price 25 cents; address the publishers.

BRITISH papers and the political British public are exercised over the removal from office of Sir Robert Hamilton, Under Secretary for Ireland. Sir Robert succeeded to office, at a trying time, to fill the vacancy caused by the assassination of Mr. Burke his predecessor. The curious features in the case is that while for political reasons the government remove Sir Robert from this office, they offer him a colonial governorship at a much larger salary than he has been receiving as Under-Secretary.

OUR local contemporary, this week, contains a characteristic reference to the SENTINEL. Reading, in that paper, that—

The SENTINEL will, in future, be required to give credit to the Press for any article, item or report copied from it—

One would naturally be led to suppose that the SENTINEL has been guilty of the habit of copying from its contemporary without giving due credit. If this charge is intended, the SENTINEL gives it a flat contradiction and stamps it as without the slightest shadow of a foundation, save in so far as it may apply to the Sabbath School column, the matter for which, under an arrangement with the Executive and the County Secretary, (who is also editor of the Press) was common to both papers. Knowing the facts of the case, our contemporary should have allowed himself to be governed by the Golden Rule when penning above paragraph, and have so plainly worded it as not to convey a false and unfair impression against a brother.

Death of Dr. Jack.

Dr. William Brydon Jack, ex-President of the N. B. University, died at his residence, Fredericton, after a brief illness, on Tuesday. He was 67 years of age, and his death will be learned with regret, by very many in all parts of the country.

B. and S.

It may gratify many of our readers to learn that, in the mutations of fashion which rules the world, both as regards what folks wear as what they eat, an old or pretty well established custom of theirs has now become "high toned"; in a word buckwheat cakes and sausages are fashionable for breakfast. Well it is a fashion not hard to submit to. B. and S. in the morning will now have a different significance from its former one.

Not the Tallest.

The claim that the statue of liberty, recently erected in New York harbor, is the highest in the world, is now disputed. Oriental scholars declare:—

That at Bamian in Afghanistan, there is a colossal image of Buddha, of great antiquity which measures no less than 173 feet in height, or 22 feet more than M. Bartholdi's copper figure. The Buddha is of stone, cut out of the living rock, so as to leave the god standing in a niche. It was measured some years ago by the British boundary commission. Its situation is high—about 8500 feet above the sea, and the pudding stone of which it is composed is honeycombed with caves dug out by Buddhist monks during the early centuries of the Christian era. These caves extend for miles in every direction.

Potatoes.

A writer in the Home Farm gives his experience in an experiment with potatoes, on an acre of ground, one small portion being treated to a more than usual quantity of fertilizers, and the rest with the usual quantity; the result is given as follows, the seed being of the White Elephant variety:—

CR.

By 370 bushels of potatoes at 30c,	$111.00

Our Boys.

It has become nothing unusual to learn that New Brunswick boys, in the United States, reach positions of public importance, to which, here they would scarcely have aspired. One issue of the St. John Sun last week, had a record, in this connection, showing how that three young men, Frank Morrison, of St. John, A. R. Doherty, of Carleton, and T. R. Gabel, of Fredericton, have each reached positions of responsibility and honor in different branches. Of course this result is most satisfactory, but because of it our young men should not be carried away with the idea that a like degree of success awaits all who imigrate from here to the United States. Honesty, industry, and intelligence, will secure here as there, a proper meed of recognition, only there the avenues are more numerous and the field broader.

Popular Conductors.

At a Fair held in Vanceboro to raise funds for the R. C. Church there, on Tuesday evening there was included in the programme, voting for the most popular conductor on the N. B, and Main Central railroads. The price of votes was ten cents each. Several names were put in competition, but the prize, a conductors' lantern, was carried off by Jerry Holt with a majority of some hundreds, he receiving 1163 votes, Fred McLellan coming next with over 900 and Mr. Pollister, of the M. C, next with over 709. This proved to the church an easy and successful mode of drawing in the ducats, as $380 was the result of the voting; this represents 3800 votes although their were not so many voters, as individuals would, in their excitement and loyalty to a favorite candidate, invest from ten cents to $20 in the operation. We congratulate friend Jerry and wish him joy of his $380 lantern.

A Surprise.

While all manner of speculation was rife as to when the Dominion elections were likely to come off and the various complications that might influence the period of that event, the Premier of Ontario has, to the surprise of everyone, added a new element to the speculative excitement in the way of a fact that possibly may affect the former consideration ably. The Ontario Legislature had another session of existence; but the government of that Province, on the advice of Premier Mowat and the Council, has dissolved the Assembly and a general election is called, to be held on the 29th December. This conclusion, it is stated, has been arrived at because it has been the invariable rule for the British Parliament after the franchise has been widened to sit no longer than has been absolutely necessary for the transaction of indispensibly necessary business. Whatever was the intention of the Government it will now not be possible for it to hold the Dominion elections before those of Ontario. And now the agitation in Ontario, preparatory to the election for Parliament, will for the time be overshadowed by that in connection with the Assembly of Ontario. The result of the latter should give some indication of the probable result of the former. At present the local house is largely Liberal and opposed to the Ottawa government, while in Parliament it has the support of a majority.

Of course, every effort will be made by each party to score a victory as it is likely the election will be run on Dominion party lines; and it will be very strange if the party so scoring does not afterward extend the victory in the succeeding election. Only it must be remembered that in each case the Governments respectively will, to a considerable extent, influence the elections.

The Manitoba elections will be held on the 9th December, so that the year will have seen general elections in all the Provinces of the Dominion.

Our Cold Country.

People who want to go west and people and corporations who are interested in inducing imigration to the west are wont to dwell upon the long and inclement winters of New Brunswick. However forcible that argument may have been in the past, as things are now the charge against our province, will not stand. Take the present and last fall and there could not be, perhaps, finer weather in any respect for the necessary and fall operations of the farmer or for the economy of stock keeping, this too following a summer in which vegetation was rapid and crops ample. How is it out west? Take the result of one day, the 16th of the present month.

At St. Paul, Minn., snow fell all day, a blizzard followed, and the streets were so blockaded as that travel on foot was almost impossible, passage of street cars impossible, and trains on all the railroads were many hours delayed.

In the northern and western parts of Iowa the cuts in the railroads were filled with snow, snow plows had to go out, the trains were greatly delayed and the storm, generally, was very severe.

At Sioux Fall, Dakota, more snow had fallen than during all last winter. The temperature was below zero and falling; trains on nearly all the railroads were abandoned and the same character of weather was reported from all parts of the State.

At Denver, Colorado, the thermometer was 4 below zero and in some parts of the State down to 20. In west Kansas and Nebraska blockades of the railroads have been reported.

In Montana a blizzard was blowing; traffic was entirely suspended.

A special train with 100 passengers was snowed in 11 miles from Sioux city and the Milwaukee railroad was lined with dead engines in snow drifts.

Here in New Brunswick we are all ready and only waiting for more snow. It may be added that a week previous to above date the New England and Middle States were visited by a snow storm of unusual severity.

THANKSGIVING.

The weather on Thanksgiving day was as disagreeable as it was possible for it to be, and, in consequence, the day was not generally observed as a holiday. The public offices were closed, but all other places of business were opened as usual.

Service was held, morning and evening, in St. Luke's church, Rev E J P.B.Williams occupying the pulpit at the latter service.

In the evening, the Opera House was brilliantly lighted and handsomely decorated for the Thanksgiving supper given by the ladies of the Methodist Sewing Circle. Notwithstanding the unpropitious weather the attendance was quite large and everything passed off in the most satisfactory manner. The supper was good enough to suit the greatest epicure; the decoration of the room was in excellent taste; the fancy table was well supplied with a handsome collection of articles, which found ready purchasers; and the representation of nations, by a number of young ladies was admirably executed, the costumes being not only becoming and beautiful, but, as well, very correct. The young ladies and nations represented were:—Gipsey, Mrs. W. F. Camber. Miss Annie Cupples; Moabitess, Misses Elva Harrison and Sophia Golding; England in the 14th century, Misses M. Allan and Lilly Harrison; Italy, Misses Annie L. Watts and Susie Williams; Roman, Misses Clara Carr and Josie Watts; German, Miss Lulu Baird; Burmah, Miss Ida Baird.

It was deemed advisable to continue the entertainment the following evening, when a goodly number was present, and to the other attractions was added the presence of the Woodstock Band. Total receipts, over $300,00.

A Rare Treat.

It is only occasionally that the people of Woodstock enjoy the visit of a first class concert troupe, but we are glad to say that such an opportunity will be offered on Monday next when the celebrated Bairnsfather Family will occupy the Opera House. This family is the only one now living which devotes itself entirely to Scottish melodies and Scottish humor. During their tour through Canada and the United States, they have received a hearty reception wherever they have appeared and the leading papers accord them the highest praise. An exchange says:—"The Bairnsfather Family gave an entertainment here on Tuesday night. We have many times listened with great pleasure to the celebrated Kennedy and other Scotch vocalists, but it is due to the Bairnsfather Family to say that they give the best Scottish entertainment we ever attended." As this will be the only opportunity of hearing the above named family for some years, the Opera House should be crowded on Monday evening. Reserved seat tickets can be had at Garden Bros.

On Tuesday's and Friday's we close at 6 o'clock, p m; other evenings at 9 p. m. Hugh Hay.

Town Council.

Nov. 18, 1886.

Council met pursuant to adjournment, His Worship in the chair; Councillors Belyea, Dibblee, Smith and McLeod present.

There was no business of importance to transact.

Councillor Belyea, from the Electric Light Committee, submitted a report as to the location of posts and lights, and recommending that at the first only a portion of the proposed number of lights should be lighted, as then a better judgment could be arrived at as to the final locating of the balance. Thus any expense of change of posts would be borne by the contractors, otherwise the Town would have to pay.

Doutney, the converted liquor dealer and reformed inebriate, assisted by Mrs. Doutney, will begin a series of Gospel Temperance meetings in the F. C. Baptist church, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. Mr. Doutney comes with the endorsement of such eminent people as the late John B. Gough, Wendell Phillips, Francis Willard and ex-Governor Dingley, of Maine, and he beepeaks the co-operation of all friends of temperance and humanity. Mr. Chas. W. Frohock, of Maine, is Mr. Doutney's Agent.

Hon. Chas. Francis Adams, died at his residence, Boston, Mass, on the 21st inst.

A parlor concert, in aid of the building fund of the F.C.B. Church, will be held at the residence of G. W. Vanwart, Esq., on Thursday evening, December 2d.

The work of placing the electric light wires is being rapidly prosecuted, and before another issue of this paper, in all probability, the lights will be in operation.

J. J. Elder, who recently gave up his situation in Connell Bros. office owing to failing eyesight, left here on Wednesday for Montreal, to be treated by an oculist.

The Rural Canadian, for 1887, will be better than ever before. Its columns will be fully alive to the best interests of the farmer.

If you want to preserve your teeth, or get a perfect-fitting, artificial set, call at Dr. Griffith's dental rooms, next door to Dr. Smith's Drug Store, over W. F Dibblee & Son's.

The SENTINEL desires to thank its friends for the large additions recently made to its subscription list. And still there is room. One dollar for the SENTINEL from now till January 1st, 1888.

At the funeral procession of the late Mrs. James A. Munro, on Wednesday, the members of Hose Company No. 1, walked as a token of sympathy for Mr. Munro, who is a valued member of that body.

Two eggs of monster size, laid by a hen owned by F. R. Blackhard, Northampton, have been placed on our table; one weighs 4 oz. and girts 8¼ x 6½; the other, the heaviest, we believe, we have ever received, weighs 4¼ oz.

Lawyers', magistrates, and all kinks of blanks on hand, or printed to order at shortest notice, and at prices lower than elsewhere. We cannot be outdone in the character or price of our job work. Orders from a distance filled without delay.

Mrs. Kinney, while hanging out clothes on the top of the shed at W. F. Gidden's, on Wednesday afternoon, slipped and fell to the ground a distance of some ten feet, breaking her left arm near the wrist. Dr. Sprague reset the broken limb.

A call has been made upon each lodge of the I.O.G.T. in this County, to send five delegates to Woodstock on Wednesday the 1st of December, for the purpose of forming a District Lodge. The meeting will be held in Cole's Hall, at 2 p. m

As announced, the members of the W. C. T. U. observed Tuesday last as a day of fasting, prayer and praise. A great many ladies visited Cole's Hall, where the service was held, during the day, and an impressive solemnity pervaded the entire exercises.

The Gospel Temperance meeting in Cole's Hall, Sunday afternoon, was fairly well attended. The speakers were Rev. Mr. Vickery, Simon McLeod and C. S. Woodling; Mrs. J. A. Shea presided at the organ. Notwithstanding the absence of some of the expected speakers, the meeting was a good one.

Last week we wrote that Colonel Raymond had consented to read a paper before the Carleton County Agricultural Society, but the printers made it read "Lee Raymond." Don't forget the meeting, Saturday next at the police office. Subject of paper to be read—"Farming as an Occupation."

On Sabbath last the Methodist pulpit was filled, in the morning, by Rev. T. J. Wright, in the evening, by Rev. W. B. Thomas; the F. C. Baptist pulpit was supplied by Rev. Jos. Cahill; the Albert Street Baptist pulpit, by Rev. A. H. Hayward, and the Main Street Baptist, in the evening, by Rev. B. Colpitts.

For some time, William Blackmore, Richmond, has been suffering from a diseased bone of the left leg. It was finally decided that amputation was necessary, which operation was successfully performed by Dr. Colter, assisted by Dr. Connell, on Monday last. Up to the present writing the patient is doing well.

Mr. Manzer, in another column, offers a reward for the conviction of the parties who destroyed the very handsome signs placed by him recently, on the bridge over the river. It is not only a mean trick to do, this pulling down and destroying signs, but at the same time it exposes the offender to a severe penalty. We hope Mr. Manzer may succeed in finding out the guilty parties.

Canterbury Station Items.

Nov. 23rd, 1886.

During a flying visit to Canterbury, one would receive the impression that considerable business is done in this neat little village.

It has five variety stores carrying large and well assorted stocks of goods. Three carpenters, two blacksmiths two shoemakers, one painter and a tailor find remunerative employment.

Situated near the mouth of Eel River is a fine mill, owned by Mr. Fred Moore, which deserves special mention. It has five run of stones and a carding machine attached.

Travellers can be comfortably accomodated at either of the hotels, one kept by the Rev. A. H. Trafton and the other by Mr. Millen Dow. The "one horse" stage, run from Fredericton to Woodstock, is as miserable and as irregularly run an arrangement as is conceivable. The people, however, are looking forward to the near future when they are to enjoy the benefits of a new railroad.

Canterbury has two resident doctors. The spiritual wants are supplied by ministers of three denominations. The Methodist and Free Baptist have regular fortnightly service, and the Baptist occasional preaching and special services. I believe a flourishing Division of the Sons of Temperance is in existence, and that no alcoholic liquors are sold in the community.

PERSONAL.—Asa Dow, Esq., we are glad to learn, is recovering from quite a severe illness.

Mr. H. V. Grosvenor has been absent from home some weeks visiting friends in Minnesapolis. TRAVELLER.

White Cotton Warps. only 80 cents, at Hugh Hay's.

Lower Woodstock Items.

Nov. 22d 1886

The Sabbath School at Lower Woodstock, assisted by the members of Dufferin Division, S. of T. intend holding a concert in Grosvenor's Hall, Eel River, on Christmas eve.

The meeting house at Springfield is nearly completed, and we learn is to be dedicated sometime in December. All praise is due to Charles Marston for the vigorous manner in which he has carried on the work.

Mr. Asa Dow, of Canterbury, is so low as to be confined to his room.

AT Letts' Music Store can be obtained the latest and most popular songs of the day including "White Wings," "Money, Money, Money," "The Lighthouse by the Sea," "When we meet again," (answer to "Some Day"); 20 cents each. Also bound copies of "Song Folio" (containing 30 Canadian Copyrights); "Folio of Music," "Royal Song Folio," Royal Folio of Music," "Galaxy of Song," "National Dance Album," and various other collections, all beautiful Xmas. presents for lady or gentlemen friends. And the mortal is at rest?
