THE Dominion Alliance held a two day's debate o_ the question of the formation of a third party. Ultimately a resolution was carried re-affirming the stand previously taken by the Alliance with reference to electoral action, and recommending that an independent candidate be run in cases where neither political nominee will pledge himself to support prohibition in parliament.

WE clip the following from the Frederic. ton Reporter, merely adding that a better man for the position than Mr. Parsons i would be difficult to find :-
