Intemperance is not only a wrong done to men, to society, to the nation, to manhood. It is a high-banded wickedness against the God of heaven. To sell strong drink is a sin. To use it as a beverage is a sin. To apologize for it is a sin. To countenance its sale or its use is a sin. Nay, to sit silent. without a voice, without an uplifted hand, without a manly or womanly remonstrance against the whole vile system by which men are ruined and God is dishonored, is a sin to
