The second convention of the York County S S. Convention was held in the Baptist meeting house, Lower Prince William, last Thursday. There were three ressionsmorning, afternoon and evening-each of which was opened with a half hour devotion al service. The local attendance was small during the morning and afternoon sessions but swelled to the full capacity of the house in the evening.

The first sulject for discussion-" How can we best promote the objects of the usso ciation?' was opened by S. J. Parsons. The principal things to be considered by the members of the assocation were, 1st "The organization of new schools, where they shall be established and how it shall be done;" 2nd-" How the condition of existing schools may be improved, and "3 d-"To induce schools to remain open in the winter season."

At 3 o'clock, p. m. the subject-" How can teachers' meetings for Bible study be best promoted, ' was taken up Mr. Lemont being busily engaged with his duties as secretary, Rev. T. F. Fotheringham opened the discussion in an alle m nner.
