Upper Brighton Items.
(These items were intended for last week, but did not reach us in time. E. B. S.) On the afternoon of Sunday, 20th inst., the funeral services of Mr. Samuel Ridenout, whose death occurred some few days before, were held by the Rev. Mr. Vanwart, assisted by the Rev.
Herman Shaw. Services were also held in the morning and evening.

Withstanding the heavy snow storm and disagreeable traveling conditions, the service of the 19th inst. the pie sociable was, in every respect a decided success. The amount obtained from the sale of pie was between $16 and $20.
The sociable was for the purpose of raising funds to enable the people to repair the F. C. B. church.

What greatly contributed to the enjoyment of all present, was the music furnished by Mr.
Harmon and Miss Minnie Galloway. It was unjust to omit that the organ belonged to Mr. R.
McLellan, agent for the "Doherty Organ Co." who so generously furnished one for the sociable of this superior quality. Mr. McLellan also acted as auctioneer; although not qualified by law to act in such a capacity, we do not think he will be prosecuted, as he required no commission for his services.

It appears that after all the talk about streeting the skating rink, all the assurances given by the instigator of the scheme, the young people of Hartland have abandoned the undertaking thinking it would not be sufficiently paying to pay expenses. Quite likely they have not entered in their judgment.

The merry jingle of bells and the laugh and hilarity of youngsters coasting down hill with "break-neck" speed, are becoming familiar.
We think parents should not allow their children to coast on the railway track, as they quite frequently do. Besides the danger of a collision with a train, there is the danger and risk of breaking one's bones on the rails.

A. W. Ridenout, Esq., has just purchased a hot air furnace from the Union Foundry Co., which he intends placing in his house, and disposing of the use of stoves.

We have omitted to say that another sociable will be held here sometime in the near future.

Wind-or-Items. Dec. 26, 1885.
The Methodist friends intended holding a pie sociable, at the residence of C. A. Simonsen, on New Year's eve. There will be a literary entertainment in connection with the Sociable.
All the ladies are invited to come and bring a pie.

The Windsor School (union), had a Christmas tree and concert on Xmas eve. The proceeds are to go to aid the Sabbath school. The efficiency and teachers desire to express their gratitude to Miss May S. Mason for kindly lending her organ and fluently presiding thereat. The Xmas tree was a grand success. Presents were distributed to the amount of $148 by Santa Claus in a very graceful manner. Mr. Joseph H. Faulkner in behalf of the teachers and scholars, presented the superintendent Mr. C.
J. Connolly with a beautiful mustache cup.
Mr. C. returned thanks in appropriate speech.

Wicklow Items. Dec. 26, 1885.
The early party held at the residence of Matthew Hutchinson, Esq., on Christmas night was a very pleasant affair. The night was cold and but few people were expected, but by seven o'clock a large number had gathered.
The fine residence, the rooms the roughly lighted and fire glowing in the grate, presented a beautiful appearance. There was candy in abundant quantities, the music the songs the display of fireworks, which were very beautiful.
Five young ladies of this place, Alice Gibson, Sarah Hutchinson, Emma Estey, Ada Gibson and Jeanie Estey have just left for London, where they have gone to seek their fortune.
It is strange that so many fine, well educated young ladies, in a good neighborhood, with convenient homes, should want to leave for other parts.

Centerville Items. Dec. 29, 1885.
Christmas has been brisk for some time past.
Christmas passed off quietly.

The Baptist Sabbath school had a concert last night and gathered all told over forty dollars to pay on a box of music.

There is very little snow, and it has been so very dry that the blacksmiths have been kept busy.

The Baptists intend holding meetings each night next week. Rev. Mr. Howard expects help from abroad.

Our Lodge, I. O. G. T., meets every Saturday evening, it is doing good.

Our Court of Foresters meets the second and fourth Tuesday in each month; last Tuesday was the election of officers when most of the officers were re-elected.

David Fitzgerald has his tannery about finished, and is filling with his waste.
Kinney & Smith are doing good business with their new mill; they find plenty of logs.

Parson Fawcett had a donation last week, and was made thereby something over $30 better off.

THE MICROFILM.—The 51st anniversary of the birthday of the Most Reverend the Metropolitan of Canada, was celebrated at Bishopscote, Wednesday evening, when his Lordship appeared as vigorous as many years during the past quarter of a century.
Age does not at all seem to have impaired his intellect, nor his it lessened his ardor in the good work to which he has so long devoted himself. —Frederick Capital.

It would inform his patrons in localities where the Clan failed to connect on Christmas that it was not the benevolent old gentleman's fault, as he was compelled to stop at Median Junction by the authorities there, for vaccination, and is now at Bon's laid up, but will be out in full blast on New Year's.

Please inform the children to that effect.
P. S.—If the lady will make herself known who sold us a pair of chickens, stuffed with goose fat, Dec. 21st, (making honest Robert believe that the said fat belongs to the "Biddies") foreword, it was not so, as when thawed they panned out and were not genuine Changhals—the same not being in the contract.) We will make her a New Year's present of not less than $5.00, as her example of shrewdness will be of great future benefit to her in business.
I would like her as a mother-in-law. Fat operators: lots of taffy, and a "Happy New Year" to all. —JOHN R. H.

Bugs butter is bad enough, but bogus eggs must be worse. A New Yorker has just been convicted at Patterson, N. J., of selling artificial eggs. His fraudulent wares were bogus throughout, outside and all. The shells were made of some sort of composition, and were filled with cheap albumen and a yolk composed of carmine and saffron. These eggs, it is said, were very like the genuine article when "scrambled," but when boiled the yolk refused to harden, and the whole was a failure. This is bringing adulteration to a fine point. It is, moreover, an outrage on the patient and uncompaining hen.

The amount expended in extirpating the last year's epidemic at Central is $15,000, and it will take a further large sum to meet further engagements entered into. Compulsory vaccination is now being strictly enforced.

A petition with 23,000 signatures in favor of optional vaccination has been presented to the German Reichstag.
