Last Friday evening a public temperance meeting was held in the Baptist Church with a good attendance. Stirring and eloquent speeches Were delivered by Rev. A. H. Hayward, Mr. J. T. G. Carr and Dr. Goodwin, of Hartland, and Mr. L. J. Tingley. There were also a number of readings and recitations well rendered, as well as several pieces of music, with Mrs. J. B. Curtis at the organ. It is hoped that good will result. No liquor is now sold here, and none has been sold here for a number of years, and any one attempting it now, will be met with a coming out of the shadow into the light, bearing instruments of music—a harp and a trumpet—to express their felicity.
