A WORD TO THE PUBLIC.

There is a party now travelling through this County representing himself to be a direct dealer, getting Organs direct from the Factory, representing to the people that by purchasing from him they save agents commission. Said party gets his Organs from a store in woodstock, thus becoming a third or fourth agent. Query: when you buy of him how do you save the agent's commission? I get my goods direct from the Factory, thus I can sell to the best adventure. There is a largest stock in Woodstock to calculate from Thanking.

A Correction. To the Editors of the Carleton Sentinel

GENTLEMEN-I was not aware, until reading the Centreville correspondence in the SENTINEL. Friday night, that I had taken an office with Mr. Carter over the store of G W White, E-q; and the general tone of the item is so thoroughly misleading that 1 make haste to have a correction inserted to inform your correspondent (unknown to me), who, before writing, might have learned upon enquiry of me, and thus saved the apparently igantic etrain on his fertile imagination and those who have perused this production of his magic quill, as well as the public in general, that I bave not taken an office with or without Mr. Carter in Mr. White's building, and am not connected with said Mr. Carter in any manner or form professionally. but on the contrary our business interests are entirely several.

In conclusion I would say that if all the items sent to the Sentinel by its Centreville correspondent are as devoid of foundation in fact as the item herein referred to, the readers of that paper would get about as correct information concerning the doings at Centreville as H. R. H. the Prince of Wales has

By inserting the above in the next issue of your valuable paper you will confer a favor Yours very sincerely,

M. B. HICKS, Barrister-at-Law Centreville, N. B., Dec. 12, 1887. Note -Itemizers for the SENTINEL, we be lieve, never knowingly make misstatements when unintentionally they err, they gladly make the proper acknowledgement, when their attention is called thereto, as doubtless will be the case in the present instance .-

ST. JOHN LETTER. There is a wide spread belief among certain classes that, unless a man has enough brase in his cheek to poison his blood and keeps half full of bad whiskey, he falls short of the ideal reporter. In fact, it has almost HAS JUST ARRIVED! come to this, that in many places the men engaged in newspaper work are only thought and epoken of outside of their duties in connection with some drinking bout. I am not a printer and therefore do not feel called upon to speak in their defence, but let me briefly discuss the facts as they relate to writers and as they exist in our own Province, New Brunswick. There are, as near as I can estimate, about 50 persons engaged in active editorial and reportorial work on the Provincial press, and, having the pleasure of knowing more than forty of them I can speak with the speak with the subjects of the speak with the subjects. Only ten of this brainy half hundred drink and, be it said to their credit, some of them are only occasional and not habitual imbibers. In St. John the editors of the three daily papers are temperance men and the same can be said of almost every editor in the Province. I doubt if you can find another class of men engaged in any pursuit who are less addicted to this habit than New Brunswick journalists and yet because their duties compel them to be here and there and every where at all times of the night or day and in all kinds of company they are looked upon as aimless loafers with no sense but that of hearing in use and ever ready to step to the bar and drink. That this is not so I think I have proved.

In a few days the men who held stock in the defunct Maritime Bank will be called upon to pay for it a second time under the double liability clause. I understand that the course the l-quidators will pursue is to call upon each contributor to show cause why he should not pay. It is a very clever move and one that will take the blame from their shoulders and give lots of work to the legal whereabouts of ex president Maclellan. Three weeks ago he was in the U. S. capital, Washington, still looking for what he don't want to find, a job By the way an interesting phase of the Maritime failure is recalled the return from the United States of Rev. Mr. McFarland, pastor of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, of which President Maclellan was a pillar. Yes he was a pillar-a rotten one-for through him all the funds DRY GOODS, CLOTHING, CAR- calculated to pay off an $8,000, debt on the church were poured into that rat hole and of course that was the last of them. The members of the church made no fuss over the matter but their noble pastor has endeared At Sweeping REDUCTIONS himself forever by his decisive action and successful efforts to recoup the church its loss. That prosperous and ingenious manufac-turer Mr. A. H. Bell of Bell & Higgins of the Bell Cigar Factory, arrived home from Havana, Cuba, last Friday, and wth him came 200 bales of pure Havana leaf tobacco, something that never came to New Prunswick before. This is the initial experiment of the manmfacture of H wanz cigars in New Brunswick, and I can see no good reason why it should not be a redded with every possible success. The energetic go-ahead-a-Brunswick, and I can see no good reason t v ness of this firm in the past has only been exceeded by their success the indications of which are the immense sales of the Bell cigar throughout every village and town in Quebec, CHOICE, USEFUL & ORNAMENTAL GOODS New Brunswick, P.
