Hoetry. The Bravest Battle.

The bravest battle that ever was fought! Shall I tell you where and when? On the maps of the world you will find it now 'Twas fought by the mothers of men Nay, not with cannon, or battle shot
With sword or nobler pen;
Nay, not with eloquent word, or thought,
From mouths of wonderful men.

But deep in a walled-up woman's heart—
Of woman that would not yield,
But bravely, silently, bore her part—
Lo! there is that battle field! No marshaling troup, no bivouse song;
No banner to gleam and wave!
But, oh! these battles, they last so long—
From babyhood to the grave!
