TAMARAC

Mr. J. G. Steacy, general merchant, of Escott, Ontario, says: I take great pleasure in recommending "Tamarac Elixir." I Suffered from a severe cough for several months which was considered incurable, although I tried numerous remedies, and was under the care of a physician for some time. Nothing relieved me until I used "Tamarac." The first dose of "Tamarac" seemed to do me more good than all the medicine I had previously taken. Three bottles effected a perfect cure.

Secretaries of Parish Sunday School Conventions should send a notice of the proposed meetings of their Convention to W. T. Kerr, County Secretary Woodstock, and notice of the meeting will be given in the S. S. Calendar in the SENTINEL and Press.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Victoria County S. S. Convention, of Andover, was held in the Methodist Church, on the afternoon of 7th inst., Rev. R. W. Clements, president, occupying the chair. Rev. D. Fiske was appointed a delegate to the Prov. Convention, opening at St. Stephen, on the 10th inst. It was agreed to hold next annual meeting of the Victoria County Convention at Lower Perth, on the third Tuesday in September, 1888. Two subjects chosen to be dealt with on that occasion, were: "What is the cause of the indifference in regard to S. S. attendance, and how is it to be remedied?" and "How would you set about organizing a new Sunday School?"

The Wilmot Parish Sunday School Convention will hold its quarterly meeting, in the Methodist Church, Williamstown, on Tuesday, 18th inst. There will be two sessions, commencing at 2 and 7 o'clock, p. m. Several prominent Sunday School workers are expected to be present, and take part in the programme.

ENGLISH NEWS.

John Bright has written a letter denying the statement that he could not support the Government's Irish policy, because he had declared that force was no remedy for the troubles in Ireland. Mr. Bright says: "Dis unionists, whether under Mr. Gladstone, in England, or Mr. Parnell, in Ireland, are not careful as to the truth of their statements Force is no remedy for just disputes, but it is a remedy, and often the only remedy, for disorder and violence, against which our laws provide. I supported Mr. Gladstone's acts of 1881 and 1882 for the suppression of the Land League and disorder in Ireland, and I now support the Government in its efforts to suppress the National League, which is the Land League under another name. My sympathy for Ireland was not born of a faction or a struggle for place and pay. It was strong as long as 30 years ago, before Mr. Gladstone, Sir William Harcourt and Mr. Morley and their followers had a word to say in favor of the Irish tenantry, or the sufferings of any portion of the people. Recent events have strengthened my sympathy. We have delivered the tenants from all that was unjust and oppressive in the laws effecting the tenure of land. It is needful to free them from the wicked conspiracy which is leading them to dishonesty and crime. The leaders of the conspiracy teach the tenant that his true interest is to plunder his landlord and to cherish a bitter hatred for England. Industry, honesty and regard for the law are despised and condemned. It is this conspiracy with which the bulk of the Liberals are asked to ally themselves. The leaders of the Liberal party, forgetting whatever is honorable in its past history, as followers, march in the path which will lead only to party disgrace and national disaster. I would save the Liberal party, with which I have been much longer associated, and for which I have worked more than any of the present acting leaders, from the humiliation with which it is menaced. I would, with my sympathy for Ireland, save the populace from the future conduct of men who are answerable for much of the present suffering and all of the disorder with which the country is now afflicted and disgraced."

LIBERAL DEMONSTRATION.

A great Liberal demonstration was held at Temple Combe, Dorsetshire. Twenty thousand persons were present, Somerset, Hants and Wilts sending contingents. John Morely who was the chief speaker, replied to Mr. Chamberlain's recent speech at Birmingham. He denied that the Gladstonian position was not perfectly clear. The Liberals, he said, stood with their feet upon a rock. Mr. Gladstone had announced his assent to modifications of his original Home Rule plan, and his colleagues, who had been concerned in preparing the bill had also cordially assented. What more did anybody want to know? He was amazed that Mr. Chamberlain did not produce his own plan. Was Mr. Chamberlain against Home Rule altogether? The Gladstonians wanted to know what Radicals like Chamberlain thought about the doings at Mitchellstown, Ennis and the other places. As for Mr Chamberlain's urging a postponement of the Irish question for English legislation, the position of Ireland, the speaker said, would not allow parliament to deal with other affairs. The ship of state was in a storm and was surrounded by tumultuous waves. There was only one way of making port, to summon back the old pilot (Cheers). Resolutions were passed expressing confidence in Mr. Gladstone and demanding justice for Ireland.

A Railway Horror.

KOUTZ, Ind., Oct. 11—The east bound express, which left Chicago on the Chicago & Atlantic Railway, last night, which stopped at a water tank, three miles west of this place, to repair a slight accident to the engine, was run into by a freight train in the rear. Three rear cars of the passenger train were telescoped, set on fire and burned. Scenes of horror rivaling those at Chateworth, Ill., ensued. It is estimated that 30 persons were killed and cremated and 15 more injured. Some 14 bodies have been taken from the wreck. Only one was identified, the others being burned beyond recognition. A few men who escaped unhurt assisted to help many of the wounded from the wreck until rapidly spreading flames drove them back. Many were roasted before their eyes. One man saw three women burned up while he was trying to extricate them. A little Bohemian boy hemmed in and not reached by the fire, saw his father, mother and two sisters slowly roasted. The boy is dying. There was a doctor on the train who saw his wife and daughter cremated in the burning wreck and could do absolutely nothing for them.

From Dover to Calais.

A plan has been submitted by Admiral Clone to the Minister of Public Works for the construction of a bridge across the English channel at Calais. The bridge is to be similar to the Niagara Suspension Bridge, and made of iron. There will be passenger ways, and a place for railroad tracks. The structure, if built, will extend from Dover Heights to the hills back of Calais, enabling ships and steamers to pass underneath.

Here and There.

The Toronto Telegram says: In this country there is no one to find fault with the authorities for the return of the flags of the Royal Canadian Regiment, or 100th Regiment as it was called, presented by the Prince of Wales to thirteen hundred Canadians on parade at Shorncliffe, England, nearly thirty years ago. The flags are said to be little bigger now than a handkerchief, showing every appearance of the effects of gunpowder and time. Their history would be interesting, for they have floated over the heads of many a brave soldier whose eyes have been long closed on "fame's eternal camping ground." When the president of the United States assented to the proposal that the flags captured by Union troops from Confederate regiments should be handed back, after the lapse of a quarter of a century, a protest went up from many northern throats and the president was denounced in vigorous terms for even thinking of such a thing. So the flags were not returned. It is doubtless the case that party politics had something to do with the protest made, President Cleveland's opponents being anxious to do him all the harm they could among his northern supporters. In this country much is said as to the indifference with which colonists look upon Great Britain's foreign wars, and it is freely stated that it would be impossible to raise a regiment in Canada to go to Egypt or Russia or India to fight for the British flag It was not always so, and that it was not is shown by the fact that the flags which have now been returned were carried by a regiment from Canada which fought Britain's battles under foreign skies.

Mr. Hurteau, the agent of the Dominion Government for the repatriation of French Canadians in the United States, left Ottawa on Wednesday night for Manitoba. He has lately been travelling through the New England States and meeting with considerable success among his compatriots. The object of his visit to Manitoba is to secure lands for intending settlers whom he expects to bring over from the United States.

"Newcombe" PIANOS!

Messrs. Octavius Newcombe & Co.:

GENTLEMEN,—The Parlor Grand Piano received from you is very satisfactory. Its action and tone merits my highest commendation, while the style and quality thereof amply correspond with your representation. To my taste of instrumental music, after an experience of 25 years, this furnishes a long sought want, in that its movement enunciates a deep bass harmony concorded with a sweet melody of the other parts and the symphony so produced excels any other instrument which has come under my notice.

Respectfully,
M. MACMONAGLE.
St. Stephen, Sept. 26, 1887.

Messrs. Newcombe & Co., Toronto:

With pleasure I express my opinion of the magnificent Grand Piano I heard at your rooms yesterday. I think it a credit to your firm. The tone is superb, even and full. The action and general construction are of the finest.

Faithfully yours,
J. F. McBRIDE.
St John's Grove, Toronto, Aug 2, 1887.

We beg to state that the above recommendation from Rev. Father McBride—who is Private Secretary to His Grace Archbishop Lynch—refers to the identical Grand Piano purchased by Mr. Macmonagle, and also that this Piano is exactly the same style and finish as the one ordered by Queen Victoria from Messrs Newcombe, and which is now in Windsor Castle.

"The Gem of the Exhibition"

By Her Majesty's gracious command, Messrs. Newcombe sent one of their Grand Pianofortes to Windsor Castle, which was placed in the Queen's Audience Chamber. This instrument was the choice of SIR ARTHUR SULLIVAN, from the instruments at the Colonial & Indian Exhibition, and his judgment was confirmed by that of DR. STAINER, Organist of St. Paul's Cathedral.

Under date 30th December, 1886, Messrs. Newcombe are in receipt of a letter from Sir Henry Ponsonby, stating that "The Queen is very much pleased with the Newcombe Grand Pianoforte."

LAST CHANCE !

This is the last chance this season to get nice, new, fresh Flour, ground from OLD WHITE WINTER WHEAT; as flour ground from NEW WHEAT will not give good satisfaction till about the 1st Dec.

It is the general experience of women, that flour during the Autumn months, is what they term runny and dark in the color: this is owing to the flour being ground from new wheat.

I have secured a choice lot of "Crown of Gold" and "Star" flour in barrels and half barrels shipped at the mill the 25th July and has just arrived, which I will sell at a small advance on Cost.

— ALSO A GOOD SUPPLY OF — Sugar, Salt, Cornmeal, Oatmeal Graham Flour, Tea, Coffee, Spices, Soda, Starch, Canned Goods, Tapioca, Maccaroni, Broma, Chocolate, Cocoa, Gelatine, Desiccated Cocoanut, Corn Starch, Pickles in barrels and bottles, Worcester Sauce, North of England Sauce, Ketchup, Horse-Radish, etc.

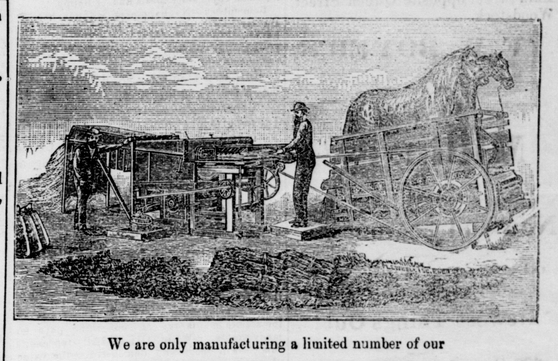
Thrashing Machines !



We are only manufacturing a limited number of our
CELEBRATED IMPROVED
LITTLE GIANT
Threshing Machines and Horse Powers this year, and nearly half of these are already sold; therefore, orders must be placed early to secure a machine.

These Machines are made of the very best of Steel, instead of Iron, as formerly, and the lumber in them is thoroughly kiln dried. The following testimonial is but one of many that are now voluntarily given to the superior value of these machines over any other, both in quantity of grain they will thresh and the perfect manner in which the grain is threshed and cleaned without waste:—

Messrs. Connell Bros.,

GENTLEMEN,—We have much pleasure in commending your Improved Little Giant Threshing Machine and Horse Power to the public. On Thursday last, in Albert Demerchant's barn, we threshed with the Machine bought of you 314 bushels of oats in 6½ hours.
