SAVINGS BANK. The fact is not generally known that the Sovernment Savings Bank is an institution pretty nearly confined to the Maritime Provinces. There are in the Dominion 50 sayings banks, of these Ontario has one, Manitoba one, British Columbia three, Quebec has not one, leaving to the Maritime Provinces the balance of 45. The amount at deposit in these several branches is-Lower Provinces.....$15,269.695

Why this is as it is we do not understand, A correspondent of a Montreal paper, writing on the subject at length, assumes that the existence of these savings banks in the Lower Provinces affects injuriously the operations of the chartered banks, and he says, how far

It seems rather strange that the Lower Provinces should be so singularly favored, and how must we pity the Ontarioans and The reperts of exports on the Canadian our poor French fellow-countrymen who products shown at the Colonial Exhibition have been so shamefully neglected! Of course these institutions are designed, as in other civilized countries, as a boon to the laboring and poorer classes, furnishing them savings too insignificant to be reached by the served, and Quebec so utterly ignored, in dispensing these beneficent institutions among We believe the cause of the won-derful success of our MURRAY & LANMAN'S interesting when we realize the large gene-
